Dear Subscriber:

Eisenhower is moving so swiftly to the extreme left that he is going to get America into serious trouble if Congress or the people do not force him to modify his program. We are suddenly faced with at least two serious threats: (1) the breaking down of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act and the flooding of our country with unassimilables; and (2) involvement of America in a war or wars in the Middle East which will be as unnecessary and pointless as was the Korean debacle.

I am enclosing an analysis of both these threats, printed on separate mailing pieces so you can handle them as separate projects. Congress will begin discussing Eisenhower's Middle East program by Monday or Tuesday (Jan. 28 or 29) and may rubber-stamp the whole stupid disgusting program by the end of the week if we do not flood the offices of the Senators and Representatives with protest letters. May I urge you to take up this fight first, leaving the fight for the immigration laws for later in the month. Send us your order by telegram or air mail and we will rush the shipment by parcel post special delivery (which travels with the speed of first class mail). Thank you and God prosper your fight for America.

Sincerely,

Williams Intelligence Summary

'ATOMS-FOR-PEACE PLAN COULD DESTROY EVERY US CITY'; ADMINISTRATION STRATEGISTS MAY SNEAK IT THROUGH UPPER HOUSE WHEN ONLY HANDFUL OF SENATORS PRESENT

Administration strategists evidently are lying low, watching for a chance to sneak Eisenhower's Atoms for Peace give-away through the Senate. This plan is as dangerous as it is preposterous.

The Los Angeles Examiner, February 10, 1957, described it sufficiently in a three-column black head: ATOMS GIVEAWAY CAN WIPE OUT U.S. CITIES.

It is so incredible that a President would want to give the most secret, most priceless and most dangerous weapon in history to all nations of the world, friend and enemy, that many people brush it off as probably a misrepresentation. They just can't believe that this is what Eisenhower proposes to do in his so-called Atoms-for-Peace plan.

It IS what he proposes to do, and there are so many soft heads like Senator Watkins in the upper house that this nation is in danger of being thus betrayed beyond the point of no return.

Early in February I began trying to find out just when the President's proposal would come before the Senate. No Senator's secretary seemed to know anything about it; but Senator McCarthy told a rally of the Abraham Lincoln National Republican Club at Chicago, February 9 that the presidential request (specifically for ratification of the treaty to take the U.S. into the UN International Atomic Energy Pool) might be ratified at any time by the Senate.

Inasmuch as the presidential request had not yet been submitted, the Senator must have feared a sneak, quick move, perhaps an attempt to bypass the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and whip the treaty through the Senate some evening with only half a dozen Senators present.

Senator Bricker has been working for a full-scale investigation of the proposed International Atomic Energy charter, which Eisenhower wants Uncle Sam to ratify and join and in fact, to make possible by supplying the atomic energy and the money with which to give it away.

Could Poison U.S. Cities

Senator McCarthy said "every major city" in the nation could be wiped out with bombs made from the material which the President proposes to give away under the treaty. He said the Atoms-for-Peace plan was in fact a plan for "Atoms for War" and compared it with the Chicago police force "offering to share guns with the hoodlum syndicate".

Senator Jenner and former Senator Herman Welker also attacked the plan as dangerous in the extreme.

The plan is that nations with fissionable materials will share them with other nations, pooling some of their "atomic energy" in the International Atomic Energy "bank". The agency is expected to start functioning very soon.

Eisenhower kicked off this preposterous

IKE, DULLES HELPED RED ARMY CRUSH HUNGARIANS BY BLOCKING SHIPMENT OF ANTI-TANK GUNS

The Presidency of the United States, for a century and a half a center of Nordic integrity and dignity, has become the center of intrigue, deception and dishonesty. President Eisenhower and his appointees quite obviously base their foreign policy on preventing any action harmful to the Soviet Union, while making a great show of anti-Communist sentiment and action.

As this goes to press Eisenhower's Secretary of State, Dulles, has just delivered a major address attacking Soviet imperialism, stating that the United States is working toward "the liberation of the captive nations".

But at the same time Dulles is reported, in the newspapers, to be planning to channel a huge sum, possibly $125,000,000, of foreign aid funds to Communist Poland. (And Poland, in turn, was reported by the Associated Press, March 30, to be planning to pass on part of the juicy melon to the Communists in North Viet Nam, as announced by the Red Viet Nam radio.)

On April 2 a Chicago Tribune dispatch said President Eisenhower told the Advertising Council, in an impromptu speech before that powerful propaganda body, that Americans must "put up with present high taxes as the price of trying to win world peace" and defeating Communism. Yet Eisenhower repeatedly has been reported as planning to give the money to Red Poland — that is, to the Red Polish government.

Kept Spain From Helping

His excuse is that we must help the Polish people keep their independence from Moscow. Any high school boy can see that strengthening the gangster is not going to help his prey; and the so-called Polish independence revolt against Moscow last fall was too transparent even to be silly. Moscow simply let Polish-born Communist Gomulka become head of the Polish Communist government, and after a sham battle which lasted only a few hours, granted Poland "independence". Gomulka's proclamation declaring Poland's independence from Moscow called for the closest cooperation with Moscow, including a military mutual defense pact, and warning the West not to make friendly passes at Poland.

In Dulles' speech he had the crust to cite the "cruel performance of Soviet Communism in Hungary"; yet the fact is, while the Soviet Red army attacked the Hungarians with tanks, Dulles and Eisenhower blocked Spain's efforts to ship anti-tank guns to the Hungarians. Fulton Lewis revealed this Administration crime in his news cast of March 27 and again April 22. Here is a transcript of the pertinent part of his March 27 broadcast:

"At the height of the November fighting, the Hungarian underground, finally despairing of U.S. aid, appealed to General Franco for weapons. The resolutely anti-Communist Spanish government agreed to deliver desperately needed anti-tank equipment, provided the Spanish airmen were assured a refueling station before the return trip.

"The West German government, at the risk of pitiless Soviet reprisals, agreed to permit the secret landing and refueling on their soil, of the Spanish planes. Both governments understood that the Spanish mission, if successful, would finally break the back of Kremlin tyranny.

"The U.S. State Department through its intelligence agents learned of the audacious liberation plan. With dispatch its representatives applied discreet but heavy pressures on West Germany and Spain. Deprived of weapons, the Hungarian freedom fighters were crushed.

"Thus the Administration not only abandons its own liberation policy, but PREVENTS the liberation of the martyred satellite peoples."

The reason why Dulles and Eisenhower are attacking the Soviet Union in such fury just now must be that Congress is threatening to cut Eisenhower's fabulous "foreign aid" donations. Will Congress keep on blinking yes at the voodoo priests? How transparent must the deception be?

Even Ike's brother Edgar was shocked that Ike, who had got into office on promises of economy, had turned out to be the worst squanderer in history.

EISENHOWER TO MAKE VICE-CHIEFS OF LEMAY, LEMNITZER; LATTER BETRAYED OUR ANTI-COMMUNIST ALLIES

Eisenhower is gradually turning over the military establishment to Jewish generals. The Associated Press, April 4 said:

"Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, ardent champion of long-range atomic air power, is being moved up to the second ranking command of the United States Air Force.

"The Pentagon announced today the four-star general, head of the Strategic Air Command for more than eight years, will become vice chief of staff . . . The Defense Department announcement about LeMay's transfer to Washington headquarters followed by a few hours official confirmation of a series of changes in the Army command.

"These changes include the shifting of Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer from the United Nations command in the Far East and from commander-in-chief of U.S. forces in the Far East to the Pentagon to become vice chief of staff of the Army.

"This becomes effective July 1, the date upon which the Far East command goes out of business and is merged with the over-all command in the Pacific . . .

"The brief three-line announcement of LeMay's transfer gave no date when the change becomes effective, although it is expected to come soon after July 1.

"There were reports that . . . LeMay agreed to move out of the SAC command only if Washington would let him name his successor."

Damaging Testimony

LeMay undoubtedly is a capable, hard driving general, and I have no proof of disloyalty on his part. But surely any man with half a brain can see that to place our security in his hands is too great a risk to take in these times when a whole nation can be wiped out with super-weapons and when the Jewish nationalists are more highly organized, more triumphant, more bloody and more daring than any force in the history of the world.

As for Lemnitzer, we have compelling evidence, at least, of disloyalty to this gentle nation. I have published before a quotation from the official proceedings of a Senate committee which pinned Lemnitzer down on his role in denying arms to anti-Communist South Korea.

The questioning took place a short time after the Communists attacked the almost defenseless South Korea, in the early summer of 1950. Lemnitzer had been in charge of shipping military supplies in conjunction with Red Dean Acheson of State Department, to anti-Communist nations. Congress had been so apprehensive over the precarious position of the South Koreans as to earmark a sum of $10,000,000 specifically for weapons for that anti-Communist country. The Reds struck and caught the South Koreans almost unarmed, as you doubtless remember. A dispatch in the Los Angeles Examiner July 11, 1950 stated:

"Shocking secret testimony that the State Department defied Congress and blocked adequate military aid to Korea remained under triple seal and locked in a Senate safe today, despite congressional and public demands for exposure. The testimony left members of the Senate appropri-tions committee horrified and angry. A number wanted to take the entire case to the Senate floor.

"Others held that the testimony was too damaging . . . They wanted the record destroyed."

Too damaging to whom? The record must have been destroyed; it was never published, or if so, never given noteworthy circulation. What traitor or traitors were being protected? Newsweek, July 10 of the same year, gave us a fragment of the answer, telling a little of the Senate committee hearing:

"(Senator) Ferguson demanded to know how much of the $10,230,000 provided for Korea in the MAP authorization of July, 1949, and the appropriation of the following October (for South Korea) had been spent and how much material had been delivered. Looking as though he'd rather be facing a Russian tank with a can opener, Lemnitzer answered that only a small amount of signal equipment had actually been sent. How much? prodded Ferguson. Very little, Lemnitzer replied. How much? Ferguson insisted. Well, not more than several hundred dollars' worth, Lemnitzer said. Ferguson insisted and Lemnitzer finally put the sum at $200.

"Ferguson was shocked . . . Republican Senator William F. Knowland of California . . . said he knew the Korean Republic had asked 'time and time again' for planes. He pointed out that our own military mission had recommended giving them some. Wasn't it true, he asked, that not a single fighter had been given to Korea?"

" 'Yes,' said Lemnitzer."

Sabotaged U.S.

A little later it was revealed in the press that Lemnitzer sent only worthless junk to Iran, instead of carrying out his assignment of sending military equipment to help fortify Iran against Soviet attack, and thus help protect the oil and strategic bases of the Middle East.

Thus Lemnitzer either deliberately sabotaged the interests of the United States in two highly important strategic areas where the Communist threat was imminent, or, at best, he permitted his office to be used to perform the sabotage. In any case, he is guilty, having been the responsible officer. And his testimony showed that he knew the material was not being shipped.

Isn't this prima facie evidence of treason?

Why would the President of the United States appoint, either of his own volition or on recommendation from the Pentagon, two Jews to the next highest offices in the Air Force and Army, at this critical time, when so many Jews have shown sympathy for and rendered aid to the Soviet enemy and so many have shown sympathy for and rendered aid to the Zionist enemy state of Israel?

If these officers rise one step higher they will be chiefs of two of the three arms of U.S. defenses. In a war emergency they can betray us a thousand ways; and if our cities are bombed or threatened, and martial law is proclaimed, Lemnitzer would be in position to clamp military police law on every city in this country, closing down the courts, newspapers, city halls, schools and libraries, seizing the telephones and telegraph systems, and tearing the Constitution to shreds.

These appointments insult every other officer in the Air Force and Army and every loyal citizen.

I hope you will write every Senator warning him about these dangerous appointments and urging him to oppose confirmation.

SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIANS STAND BY AMERICANISM

So many ministers and churches are so Red, especially so anxious to amalgamate the races into a world state under the United Nations, that it is refreshing to read the Southern Presbyterian Journal, which consistently opposes these subversive influences. Below is part of an editorial from the March 27 issue. The magazine is published at Weaverville, N.C. For many years it has been edited by the stalwart American, Rev. Henry B. Dendy. The editorial follows:

During the CBS news broadcast on Sunday morning, March 17th, the announcer said: "And now we will take you to what many people hope will some day be the capital of the world — United Nations Headquarters."

Some twenty minutes later, in a different broadcast entitled, "Religion in the News," it was announced that the National Council of Churches has approached the Council of Catholics and Jews suggesting that they unite in sponsoring a program "emphasizing spiritual values without reference to individual religious beliefs; beamed to the unchurched."

While the above remarks came from different sources they reflect a philosophy abroad — the Philosophy of Babel—which can have deadly consequences for the nation and for the church.

We believe every form of legitimate international cooperation possible should be fostered but we also believe that our national integrity must be preserved at the same time, not only for national survival but also because the world needs nations with the spiritual and moral ideals which are a part of our American heritage.

This effort to belittle patriotism and national pride and to submerge our interests in an international organization where we would no longer be the master of our own destiny, or able to exercise our influence according to the dictates of our own judgment, is nothing less than pernicious. The idealism of the one-worlders (if "idealism" is the correct word) simply does not make sense. America does not have to surrender her God-given position in order to exercise the best possible influence on the world. A philosophy which would lower all decisions to the one most acceptable to the largest number of nations possible is nothing less than a philosophy of national suicide.

But this philosophy is not restricted to the political or international level. There are some within the Church who have become so enamored with the idea of "brotherhood" that they would emphasize it to the loss of Christian truth itself.

LUCIUS CLAY, AGENT FOR "IKES BOSS", REMAINS MAN OF MYSTERY. IS HE JEW OR NON-JEW?

The pictures of General Lucius Clay, Ike's adviser, have always shown a striking Jewishness, and Clay has for many years been intimately associated with Jewish financial and revolutionary leaders; and he was put in command of the vindictive forces over the Christian German populace after the war at a time when Jewish Reds were so powerful in the U. S. government that Rabbi Bernstein virtually ran the occupation of Germany, flying President Truman's private plane, the Sacred Cow, back and forth at will and giving Governor-General Clay his orders and instructions.

Clay has made public statements that he is a descendant of the illustrious Senator Henry Clay. The Senator was certainly no Jew; but his son married a Jewess named Gratz. A subscriber sends me the following interesting paragraph from page 35 of the book "Jews in American History": Their Contribution to the United States (Harry L. Golden and Martin Rywell; published 1950 by Henry Lewis Martin Co., Charlotte, N.C.):

"Henry Clay's son married a Gratz, and in 1844 William Rogers, Jr., of Louisville, Kentucky, wrote a letter to President Van Buren and complained that Henry Clay was catering to the Jews since his son married a Gratz's daughter. Nones was Henry Clay's secretary. (Nones was Jewish.)"

The B'nai B'rith Messenger of Los Angeles, August 31, 1956, further confirmed the intermarrying of the Clay and the Gratz family. An article in that issue of the Jewish weekly titled Jewesses in Hall of Fame, by Ben Negri, stated:

"... Harry Simonhoff in his recently published 'Jewish Notables in America' gives us six women among the total of 87 notables. The half-dozen Simonhoff selects are Abigail Minis, Rebecca Franks, Rebecca Gratz, Penina Moise, Ernestine L. Rose and Ada Menken ...

"The third lady is ... Rebecca Gratz, daughter of Michal Gratz, merchant and western colonizer ... Rebecca Gratz had been the closest friend of Matilda Hoffman, the fiancée of the famous American author, Washington Irving. Miss Gratz nursed her as she lay dying of tuberculosis. Irving later told about it to Sir Walter Scott who used her as the model of the Rebecca of Ivanhoe.

"The Gratz's were very friendly with the Henry Clay family with which it married. Rebecca Gratz herself was never married. She was the founder of several charitable organizations."

Henry Clay, His Great Uncle

In Who's Who in America, General Clay lists his father as Alexander Stephen Clay. In the 1944-45 edition he lists his mother as Sarah Francis; in the 1952-53 edition, he lists her as Francis White.

Who's Who in America, 1903-05, lists General Clay's father, Alexander Stephens Clay, as "son of William J. and A. E. (Peck) Clay" (citing the National Encyclopedia as source for this information) and further says Alexander Stephens Clay was "born on farm in Cobb County, Ga., Sept. 25, 1853 ... Graduated from Hiwassee College, 1875, taught school 2 years, admitted to bar, 1877. Member and president Georgia Senate, 1892-94. Chairman State (Ga.) Dem. Committee 1894-97."

General Lucius Clay

Who's Who for 1910-11 says the father, Alexander S. Clay, was a U.S. Senator from Georgia, 1897-1903, 1903-9, 1909-15. However, Who WAS Who in America, 1897-1942, says Senator Clay died in 1910.

These references do not show any connection between General Lucius Clay and the famous compromiser, Senator Henry Clay.

Current Biography for May, 1945, says:

"A distant kinsman of the statesman, Henry Clay, Lucius D. Clay was born in Marietta, Georgia to Sarah (Francis) and Alexander Stephens Clay" and that he married a Marjorie McKeown. Current Biography mentions that Clay received the Russian Order of Kutuzoff, First Class, for distinguished service in the second world war including "his work in demilitarizing Germany".

The only other reference I find showing a connection between General Lucius Clay and Senator Henry Clay, other than the public statement by Clay himself, some years ago, is a sentence on page 18 of U.S. News and World Report, September 10, 1954:

"His father was a U.S. Senator and his ancestors include Henry Clay, his great-great uncle."

"Ike's Boss"

Notice the strange misuse of the word ancestors. Supposedly it was a similar misuse of the word descendant by General Clay which gave us the impression that he was actually descended from Senator Henry Clay.

None of these references reveal any Jewish blood in Lucius Clay, but his appearance, his "social action", his temperament and his associations leave me with the conviction that Clay must be Jewish. If you have any documentation on the subject I would like to see it.

It is his privilege to be Jew or non-Jew; our point is that if he is Jewish he is living a life of deception. As close as he is to the President of the United States, being one of the half dozen men who shape Eisenhower's policies, the people have a right and a duty to know about any such connections with a highly organized, infiltrating revolutionary alien race.

As I have published before, quoting among other sources, the Hearst newspapers, Clay is the underling of the powerful Jewish financier, Sidney Weinberg, who uses Clay as his principal contact with the President (though Weinberg himself goes in and out of the White House with increasing frequency).

You may remember that in the February 1954 issue I quoted the Hearst papers as pointedly calling Sidney Weinberg "Ike's Boss" and General Clay the link or messenger boy between Weinberg and Eisenhower. Weinberg, a senior partner in the Jewish financial house of Goldman and Sachs and many other firms, brought Clay back from Germany and made him president of Continental Can Company. The Hearst papers said Ike took his orders from Weinberg through Clay; they put the case just that bluntly; and when Weinberg and his fellow international Jewish banker, Bernard Baruch, put pressure on the Hearst officials, they refused to retract.

What is the Jewish agent, Clay up to when he calls for "aid to Hungary" as he did in November? Are we to interpret this call as coming from a heart bleeding for the Communist enslaved Hungarian Christian populace? Does it mean that the Jewish financiers who financed the Trotsky Red Army and the Soviet power machine, at long last have broken with their Communist gangster apparatus and turned against it? Or does the call simply mean that these brilliant and farsighted Jewish strategists want to be in on the ground floor, with their men in charge, in case the United States at last goes to the aid of the Hungarian anti-Communists? Just as in the operations of Radio Free Europe, which Clay and fellow Jewish revolutionaries set up, they could then disrupt and frustrate genuine anti-Communist operations while posing as anti-Communist.

More likely Clay's call for aid to Hungary merely was to help prepare the public for more Eisenhower give-away of our tax money to the Communist dictatorship over the Hungarians, not at all to the anti-Communist Hungarian people—an extension of Eisenhower's policy of aid to Communist dictator Tito, aid which helps him stay in power over the enslaved Christian Yugoslav populace.

Senator Knowland is gradually stepping up his attack on Eisenhower Modern Republicanism and the United Nations, obviously getting ready to challenge the one-worlders and welfare staters for the presidency in 1960. But Eisenhower and his backers won't likely overlook their potent ace-in-the-hole: They could have Ike resign a year or so before the end of his term, or perhaps do him in, so that Nixon will be in full command of Republican forces long before the 1960 GOP convention. I hope I am wrong; Knowland is a fighter and one of the smartest politicians of this century.

NEWS FLASHES . . .

An 8-column banner in the News and Courier of Charleston, S.C., Sept. 9, 1956, read: NORTH MAY COME AT LAST TO THE SOUTH'S WAY OF THINKING. The article told of many newspaper reports of Negro gang fights against white girls and boys, Negro raping of white women, Negro knifings and other violence (the result of incitation, no doubt, by Communist and Zionist trouble makers). Newspapers could no longer be restrained from identifying the terrorists as Negroes.

A report by the same newspaper Jan. 26, 1957, said "History was made Saturday, Jan. 12, when in reporting a teenage brawl in West Philadelphia, Walter Annenberg's Philadelphia Inquirer identified the troublemakers as Negroes."

Sammy Gach, Marxist revolutionary who for years has published the California Jewish Voice, in his April 19 issue attacked S. Alexander, Negro publisher of the Los Angeles Negro paper, Herald Dispatch, saying "This particular paper over the months has been keeping up an unrelenting attack on Israel and its friends."

I had planned in the April Summary to report the secret meeting of international financiers and high ranking revolutionaries at St. Simon Island, Georgia. I had the record showing that nearly every one of the 36 U.S. participants was a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. I was reminded of the similarity of this secret meeting with that at Jekyll Island, Ga., in 1908, at which secret pow-wow certain international financiers, including Nelson Aldrich (of Rockefeller-Chase National Bank connections) and the Jewish banker Paul M. Warburg, planned the Federal Reserve money system. It was this plan which later was put over on Congressmen and Senators, who never to the day of their deaths heard of the secret meeting. This plan induced Congress to abdicate its Constitutional responsibility to coin money and regulate the value thereof, turning over this key to power to the handful of secret connivers of Jekyll Island infamy.

I didn't have room for this in the April issue, and now Pegler has done such a magnificent job of exposing both the St. Simon Island and the Jekyll Island secret meetings that there is no need for me to report on it.

For several years I had been mystified that the bleeding-heart brotherhood who induce so much spending for racial minorities here and all over the world, remained so quiet about the plight of the American Indians, some of whom almost starved to death at times. I found the explanation in the Santa Ana Register December 18, 1956 in an AP article from New York. The article revealed that the government agency, under welfare states, was deliberately making the reservations unappealing, forcing the Indians to pour into our industrial cities! Just as the CIO, Anna Rosenberg, the late Sidney Hillman, Eleanor Roosevelt and fellow Reds and bleeding hearts for a quarter of a century have found ways to shoo the Negroes from the farms of the South into the industrial cities — where they fall under the Red propaganda whip and by and large are "voted" as political captives.

F. Scott McLeod evidently was kicked upstairs by Dulles and Eisenhower to get him out of State Department, where for three years he has persisted in upholding the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act, screening alien applicants who want to infiltrate our country. He was one of the few stalwart Americans in the Red State Department. Now that he has been appointed Ambassador to Ireland, the smear bund is at work throughout Ireland, evidently hoping to get him sent back home, on arrival — and thus finished off. Every American ought to write the Senators insisting that they ok McLeod's appointment and publicly commend him for his fighting Americanism.

Many Californians are changing their registration to the Constitution Party, hoping thus to get the party on the California ballot in next year's Gubernatorial and Senatorial elections. If Knowland is a candidate for Governor (on the Republican ticket of course) the Constitution Party probably also will make him its nominee. He is not as sound as Jenner, but we could hardly hope to get Jenner whereas we might get Knowland.

"ATOMS-FOR-PEACE" . . .

campaign in a speech in December, 1953, his "Atoms-for-Peace" speech. He has already made public promises to give substantial quantities of our (your and my) U-235 to the International Agency, a United Nations inspiration and affiliate. Though Eisenhower says he is giving away our atomic energy "for peace", there is no reason why it cannot be converted into weapons, both bombs and poisonous dust, and no watch dog system could possibly guard it all, even if the watch dogs were all sincerely anti-Communist and pro-West, which many surely would not be.

Radio active dust is one of the most pervasive and deadly poisons invented by this benevolent, bleeding heart generation. Any nation, no bigger than the state of Israel, could strike our country a mighty jolt by poisoning the water supply of our major cities (and Ana Pauker, Communist Jewess, told Princess Ileana of Roumania that her cohorts would do just this to America at the proper time).

It is bad enough to contemplate that of the 39 members in the International Atomic Energy Agency we will have but one vote. But note that even Israel, and yes, even the Soviet Union and the various Red satellite governments will also participate in the benevolent pool. They will be full partners with us in taking our atomic energy. Eisenhower specifically wants to help the Yugoslav Tito regime and the Communist regime of Poland, so he will undoubtedly want to see that they get a share of our precious defense materials, "for peace".

Under Eisenhower's proposals the Administration, as Senator McCarthy pointed out, could give away $500,000,000 worth of fissionable material to pool members, including the Communist nations.

"The material could be converted into 2,200 atomic bombs, or enough to destroy every major city in the United States."

It is easy enough to understand that the Zionists and the Communists want this program. We can readily understand their position: they have a world revolution to conduct; they have got to make this vicious, freedom fostering capitalist nation destroy itself, removing the chief obstacle to their power plans.

But who can fathom the mind of a President of the United States, a gentile, born in the Middle West, graduated from West Point, "raised up" in the Army — who yet wants to do this to his country?

Won't you bombard the Senators with letters urging them not to let this "Atoms-for-Peace" treaty get Senate approval?

STATEMENT OF POLICY

This publication attacks no man because of his race, but spares no subverter because of his race. The publisher believes that those basic carriers of Communism and political Zionism who attempt to hide behind the Jewish religion must be mercilessly exposed, both to discourage them and to make the American citizen understand the nature of the subversive attack against this nation, its institutions and its people. The publisher urges the Jews of America to repudiate their vicious leaders and embrace Americanism, thereby preventing the tragic race conflict fomented by the revolutionists.

Dear Subscriber:

Have you noticed the new feature in the Intelligence Summary — the column of one and two-paragraph stories reporting important developments? For a long time I have wanted to give you a condensation of this kind. Please let me know if you want the column expanded to a page or more. We will not drop the crusading lead story in each issue, but the voodoo priests are so busy brewing so many new political, "social" and financial brews that there is an urgent need to give wider coverage in straight news reporting. I mean, of course, the big news which is not properly treated in the daily papers.

Just here I must add a highly confidential item: We are broke and in the red. I told you months ago I would never again get out a begging letter; that I would report to you from time to time our financial condition and if you then wanted us to carry on, very well. We will carry on as long as funds permit.

We are printing an extra quantity of the May issue of the Summary especially because of the article on Eisenhower's incredible "Atoms-for-Peace" give-away. I hope you will make wide use of it. The temper of Congress is running more and more conservative; surely we can prevent this outright treason if we will write enough Senators and Congressmen.

Sincerely,

EISENHOWER SCUTTLES POWERFUL FREE CHINA ALLY; DRIVES FORMOSA FORCES TOWARDS SOVIET CAMP

President Eisenhower at last has succeeded in driving our potentially decisive anti-Communist ally out of our "camp". The anti-American riots in Formosa were the long foreseen, inevitable result of the Truman-Acheson-Eisenhower-Dulles policy which keeps the Free China army chained to Formosa.

By refusing to turn Chiang Kai-shek loose to raise an underground army on the mainland and liberate his homeland from the Communist gangsters, Eisenhower has disgusted and finally angered the whole anti-Communist leadership, plus many or most of the rank and file, including the civilian population, as we saw recently when a mob stormed the U.S. Embassy.

So great has become the hatred for us that a mob formed quickly when a woman with a protest poster began picketing our embassy in Taipei, the capital of Formosa. The woman was the widow of a Chinese who was shot to death as a peeping-Tom by a U.S. Army sergeant. A military court acquitted the sergeant, apparently on the ground of justifiable homicide. The mob swelled to 10,000, then to 20,000, then to 30,000, despite efforts of police to disperse them.

Ransacked Our Embassy

They roared approval every time one of their number threw a rock through an embassy window. They broke out every window and ransacked the embassy. They were so mad at us they killed two or three of their own police who tried to restrain them.

It seems conclusive that the Chinese had been caught flatfooted on the sergeant's property, peeping into his home at his wife. Anyone under such circumstances is justified in defending his home. An American jury of civilians most likely would acquit the defender under such circumstances.

A few years ago, before Truman and Acheson sent George C. Marshall to Asia to shut off arms shipments to Chiang Kai-shek, the Christian anti-Communist leader, and thus throw China to the Reds, an American soldier was a hero among the millions of anti-Communist Chinese. After Marshall "disarmed" (his own word) 27 of Chiang's divisions and let the Red Army flow across China, Chiang and his people were stunned. They were unable to understand why the United States, which so vociferously fought Communism by word of mouth, would thus guarantee victory for the Communists.

But when Eisenhower got the Republican nomination for President and promised to help the captive peoples regain their freedom, Chiang and his staff and many of his people jumped at the conclusion that Eisenhower would do what he promised in campaign speeches. One of America's most famous leaders, an outstanding expert on the Far East, told me he was sure Eisenhower, if elected, would help Chiang undo the work of the Truman-Acheson-Marshall team and see China freed from Communist invaders.

I pointed out to this patriot that Eisenhower had always been a favorite of the Marxists, had been extremely friendly with the Moscow leaders and had been raised up to political prominence by the Zionist and Communist frontiers, including the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and Americans for Democratic Action — all of whom relentlessly hated Chiang and others who fought the Communists. I tried to show my friend that Eisenhower, too, hated Chiang and always favored the pro-Communists and the anti-anti-Communists, and that the last thing this crowd would permit him to do, even if he wanted to, was help Chiang Kai-shek.

But the friend had known Ike personally in the Army, and though thoroughly informed about the Communists in the Far East, he could not believe that Eisenhower was so completely a friend and captive of the left wing here at home.

So when I saw him some two years later, after Eisenhower had shown that he

ZIONIST GRIP ON UNITED NATIONS SLIPPING; JEWISH PAPERS LAMBAST UN IN AMAZING FLIPFLOP

Incredible as it seems, the mighty Zionist Organization has lost, at least momentarily, some of its grip on its founding, the United Nations.

It has not been able to swing the vote of the United Nations on issues favoring Israel in the Middle East.

For some time the Jewish newspapers which favor Zionism over Communism (at points where the strategy of Zionism conflicts with that of Communism) have been attacking the United Nations.

The fabulously powerful Zionist leader, who also has been such a great influence benefitting the Moscow Communist movement, ex-Senator Herbert Lehman, is currently leading the attack. In the Los Angeles B'nai B'rith messenger of May 3, 1957, international banker Lehman called the United Nations "unmoral" for its refusal to knuckle under to Israeli pressure in the recent crisis following the seizure of the Suez Canal by Egypt and the invasion of Egypt by the Jewish, British and French armies.

The B'nai B'rith Messenger quoted Lehman in its banner story on page one:

"A charge that many statesmen of the Western world are guilty of 'unmoral means and unmoral policies' in their efforts to promote peace in the Middle East and other areas was made here today by former U. S. Senator Herbert H. Lehman of New York.

Stymied In Egypt

"He cited the 'great pressure' brought against Great Britain, France and Israel 'to force a return to the status quo in the Middle East' and emphasized that this was done 'despite the fact that the status quo in this case was a condition completely characterized by illegality, disorder and immorality'.

" 'Could it and did it contribute to law and order and morality,' he asked, 'for the United Nations to support the Dictator Nasser and his ally Soviet Russia in their murderous designs against free and democratic Israel?'

" 'Was it on moral principle,' he continued, 'that the UN restored to Egypt the power to blockade Israel in the Suez Canal and provide for Nasser and the Kremlin final authority over the Canal?'

" 'This is morality turned upside down and inside out,' he said."

The attack on the United Nations by the outstanding leaders of Zionist Jewry is a milestone which I had hardly expected to live to see. It does not mean that the Jews have completely lost out in the United Nations. They founded almost all of the bureaus of the United Nations; they inspired the original concept of world government itself. They own the body of the soulless UNESCO. They swarm like flies in and out of all the United Nations bureaus. Some of them are Communist Jews, most of them are Zionists and the many who for years have been both, must be suffering severe attacks of "mental illness" as they still try to straddle both horses.

Jewish Community Confused?

I am constantly probing in an effort to find out how much of the Communist wing of the United Nations still is under Jewish domination. To some extent this split is a split within the Jewish community; the Jewish people generally are, for the present, in a state of confusion regarding Communism. Throughout the thirties and the forties, until after the Second World War, Jews of the Western World were led to believe that the Christian World was out

USSR RABBIS DEIFY RED REGIME ANTISEMITIC; SAY U.S. RABBIS MISREPRESENT "WITH ULTERIOR MOTIVE"

While the Jews undoubtedly have less power in and over the Soviet government than they originally had, during the years immediately after they and their underlings set up this government over the Russian people, it is doubtful that the Soviet government has turned anti-Semitic.

The Russian people, yes; they have been increasingly anti-Semitic for a century or so, and intensely anti-Semitic since certain Jewish revolutionaries headed by Sverdlov and Trotsky, seized power in the October Revolution of 1917. The Red secret police was entirely a Jewish agency, always headed by a Jew till Beria was disposed of after Stalin's death. We have no knowledge of the racial identity of the present head of the secret police; he may not be a Jew; the invisible machine has lost some of its ability to produce secret terror; and there is reason to believe that its personnel enrolls fewer Jews than formerly.

But we have fully as much evidence that the Soviet government itself is not anti-Semitic as that it is. Here is an interesting letter from Rabbi Shlomo Shlifer of the Moscow Jewish community, and certain other key rabbis of the USSR (which letter appeared on page 24 of the May 14, 1957 issue of Look magazine):

Your issue of November 27, 1956, carried an article (The Plight of the Jews in Russia) by Joseph Miller, a Brooklyn rabbi, one of a group of American rabbis who toured the Soviet Union. The group . . . made use of their brief stay . . . to acquaint themselves with religious affairs of the Jewish communities . . . They were shown much attention by Jews as well as non-Jews. We (were) sincerely glad to have our coreligionists from America come for a visit. We hoped the visit would . . . strengthen our friendly ties. It seems, however, our gladness was premature. Rabbi Miller evidently did not come to us with good intentions. His task, it appears, was to collect as much information as possible to show the "plight of the Jews in the Soviet Union" so that he might present his "observations" . . . to be used by certain circles for their own purpose. We should like . . . with your co-operation . . . to tell the truth . . . The October Revolution brought Jews equal rights . . . They can live freely, hold public office in the government, army or any other organization . . . Anti-Semitism has been made a crime against the state . . . Our religion is free . . . Synagogues, as a rule, have mikvahs and . . . special places where poultry may be slaughtered . . . (We) observe the rite of circumcision and Bar Mitzvah. Rabbi Miller is dissatisfied because no Jewish religious instruction is given in Soviet schools . . . The school is separated from the church. Soviet law does not prohibit believers from giving religious instruction outside the school . . .

We Soviet Jews thank the Almighty and ask Him to protect us from evil forces and to preserve peace on earth. We pray that our homeland . . . in which all people . . . are brothers, may always prosper.

WHO IS C. D. JACKSON?

One of the men most responsible for the pro-Communist activities of Radio Free Europe is C. D. Jackson who has been one of Eisenhower's closest advisers. Eisenhower made him his administrative assistant soon after he was elected President, but Jackson continued to work closely with the so-called Crusade For Freedom (National Committee for A Free Europe) which financed and runs the propaganda stations called Radio Free Europe.

The New York Times of March 4, 1954, when Jackson gave up his full-time job as adviser to Eisenhower and went back to his old job as one of the editors of Time, Life and Fortune magazines reported:

Washington, March 3 — C. D. Jackson, administrative assistant to President Eisenhower on 'cold war' planning, resigned today. The resignation, which had been expected, will become effective on April 1.

"In an exchange of letters, President Eisenhower expressed high praise for the man who has helped him to conceive important pronouncements and actions, including the proposal to establish an international pool of atomic energy for peaceful purposes.

"Charles Douglas Jackson, who prefers to be known as 'C.D.', will return to the Time-Life group of publications. His office merely said today that he would return to Time, Inc. He had been publisher of Fortune magazine, but has been on leave from that position while he was on the White House staff and before that, while heading the National Committee for a Free Europe.

"In a letter to Mr. Jackson, President Eisenhower said that of course he had known Mr. Jackson had planned to leave during the winter or spring, but it was a shock to face up to the actual resignation.

"The President said 'he was particularly pleased' by Mr. Jackson's report on the improved coordination of the work of telling the country's story abroad.

"The President said that from time to time he would call on Mr. Jackson for 'some unexpected or unusual chore' . . ."

Time Hasn't Changed Policy

The effort to set up and drag America into an international atomic energy pool "for peaceful purposes" has been an act of treason from the beginning to end. Eisenhower was not capable of thinking it up. He is not even capable of understanding it. Perhaps he is not even capable of realizing that it may prove to be our Frankenstein.

Who is C. D. Jackson, the man who has had so much influence on Eisenhower and who, with his associates, has been so successful in propagandizing through Radio Free Europe on behalf of Communism?

Who's Who in America for 1953, page 1238, says of Charles Douglas Jackson: "Vice-Pres. Time, Inc., b. New York, NY, Mar. 16, 1902; s. Carl D. and Eda (Strauss) J."

In other words, "C.D." is the son of a Jewess of the Strauss family. Furthermore, he was with Life and Time Magazines throughout the nineteen thirties and forties at a time when the Communists built up inside those publishing offices a huge Communist cell.

The former Communist, Howard Rushmore, before the Hearst papers let him out in 1948, wrote for the April, 1948, issue of Plain Talk Magazine that the Communist Daily Worker had many friends on Time Magazine. Ex - Communist Rushmore wrote:

"I spoke at a closed 'fraction' meeting of 40 employees of Time Magazine — all party members — and they contributed liberally to the Worker's fund drive. NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE also had a large 'fraction' . . ."

Now, inasmuch as C.D. Jackson has been so far to the left and so influential in helping the Communists and in hindering our efforts to rid ourselves of Communism, we have a right and a duty to ask: was this presidential adviser a member of the Communist cell in Time magazine? Is the cell still there? Is it still so powerful?

We have not seen any indication that Time has changed its line and we certainly have evidence that Jackson is no less radical.

BIG NEWS IN BRIEF

Milwaukee Sentinel of March 22, 1957 commented in a lead editorial about the suicide of Canada's Ambassador to Egypt, E. Herbert Norman: "What arouses attention is that public officials accused of having strengthened the Communist cause in the Far East in the 1940's, are now found in critical positions in the Middle East. Is this coincidental or was it planned that way?"

One of the U.S. officials to whom the Milwaukee Sentinel editor had specific reference is John K. Emmerson, who played an important role in tossing China to the Communists after the Second World War.

Santa Ana's excellent Congressman, James B. Utt, in a recent bulletin from Washington warns that while gold is flying out of the United States to foreign countries, the government has so discouraged gold mining that production is now "less than one-third the amount produced during the peak year of 1940". This reminds me of the remarkable job Major George Racey Jordan has done in exposing the treachery of the federal government against western miners during and since the war. Jordan has revealed and widely publicized the fact that the government commandeered mining equipment, stripping many mines, especially gold mines, during the war, on the pretext that the machinery was needed for the "war effort". Instead, however, the government shipped the machinery to the Soviet Union. No doubt it is now being used in many Soviet gold mines. The Soviet government

SEN. KNOWLAND U. S. SCHOOLS SPLITS PANTS FAR BEHIND

Senator Knowland, one of the most astute politicians of this or any age, is splitting his political pants. In fighting for the Communist "civil rights" measure before the Senate, he is making it impossible for the Old South to support him and he is scuttling several million of his staunchest GOP supporters.

His position is wrong in principle: It is not at all the function of government, Federal or State, to interfere in race relations. It is up to each man to decide for himself whether he prefers his own kind or some other kind.

Not only is Knowland making a moral mistake: he is making a mistake in political strategy. He has the finest "out" in the world if he wants to oppose the civil rights bills. All he has to do is point out that any matters relating to the qualification of voters are by tradition and by our general concept of a federation of sovereign republics, matters to be left strictly up to the states themselves.

In an Associated Press dispatch from Washington, May 4, 1957, he took exactly that position regarding a "right-to-work" amendment to the "civil rights" bill which Senator McClellan of Arkansas had introduced. Knowland was quoted as saying that, in his opinion, the "right-to-work" legislation "should be left to the decision of the states. He called it a matter of states' rights."

Even that is fence straddling; but he has been doing far worse in supporting the "civil rights" bill.

Perhaps there still is time. If we bombard him with letters urging him not to scuttle his future, but to go down into the Old South and fight for states' rights, it is conceivable that he might drop his fight for the coercive race laws. At least, the possibility justifies our effort.

If he refuses to oppose or drop this Communist measure, he will leave us no choice but to hunt someone else for our Constitution Party candidate.

is producing gold at an ever increasing rate.

During the war it was not unusual for a Communist or a Communist organization to have financial deposits in the Chase National Bank of New York. The Zionists also bank with Chase (which is often called the Rockefeller bank). In an editorial in the May 3, 1957 issue, the Los Angeles B'nai B'rith Messenger speaks of "Israel's recent payment of $3,000,000 in Independence Bonds for retirement to the Chase National Bank."

* * *

Betty Beale's syndicated column called Washington Society, which appeared in the Santa Barbara News-Press, March 24, 1957 gave us big news in a paragraph: "Ambassador Jock Whitney, U.S. Envoy to the Court of St. James, was preceded to England by his labor consultant, Anna Rosenberg, former assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower in the Truman Administration. He sent her ahead to make a survey of labor conditions in England.

If you have friends who are complacent about the degeneracy of our people, especially of our public schools, ask them to read the following letter which I quota from the June, 1957, issue of the Ladies' Home Journal (page 4):

Eastbourne, Sussex, England

Dear Editors: By far the brightest highlight of our stay in England has been the boys' schools. Jay, who is eleven, has been attending a "public" school, not of the same rank as Eton or Winchester, but still quite good. They begin Latin, French and what seems to me to be higher mathematics at age nine!

Johnny is attending a place called the Dolphins, which is a pre-prep school, and since he is so much smarter than his father, and always has been, it is no surprise that he is near the top of his form. Jay, who had to jump from the multiplication tables (which he didn't know very well) to algebra and geometry and to second-year Latin and French, I was more worried about. I needn't have been. He is mad about his work and does it incredibly well. He has been at the top of his form of ten for the past three weeks. Of course the very small classes account for a lot (and the six-day week with school until six in the evening on Saturdays!), but the fact is that a ten-year-old can be taught almost anything. I wouldn't have believed it if I had not seen it.

Our conclusion is that we shall send both boys to private schools when we return. At least a boy will not be allowed to sit idle in a small class. I have been somewhat reluctant to criticize the public schools in the United States, chiefly because I felt it reflected on the teachers—and most of them should have many stars in their crowns. But the fact is that standards throughout the public-school system in the United States have dropped to the point where even mediocre accomplishments seem excellent. Obviously, many, many boys can be taught the traditional "hard" subjects—languages, math and science—at an age far younger than high school. Indeed, ten is about where they should start. I know it is not saying much for me, but I have visited in the scholarship form (thirteen-year-olds who have a chance to win a scholarship at a public school) and they were doing work in math and language superior to that for which I was awarded a master's degree in an American state university.

Sincerely,

GLENN WHITE

The British thought this was probably an old American custom."

This is the same Anna Rosenberg who, according to sworn testimony of a former Communist before a Senate Committee, was a member of the Communist Party and the John Reed Clubs. This is the same Anna Rosenberg who had me discharged from Military Intelligence Reserve the day her nomination as Assistant Secretary of Defense in charge of Personnel was confirmed by the Senate (after I had exposed her Communist record). Congress should call Jock Whitney back and find out why he let Anna Rosenberg set up his offices for him in England and find out also whether or not she chose his principal assistants for him.

Two or three months ago, a well informed subscriber in Canada, a student of history, past and present, called my attention to a subtle and daring maneuver currently being executed by Israeli strategists. They are maneuvering to make Israel a of the British Commonwealth. I think that one over. Britain always in debt in recent years as a result of Socialism, might jump at the opportunity to adopt the richest stepchild in the world. Furthermore, the Israelis have a sizeable toe hold in the Near East and have big ideas. They apparently intend to take in all the Middle East. Many British business men and political leaders would welcome an opportunity to get the Middle East back into the British Empire. The Jews would stand to lose nothing while gaining British military support. Once again, they could trade the blood of Anglo-Saxon soldiers for more land in the Middle East.

The British leaders apparently still do not realize that they cannot deal with the Israelis and come out with their shirts on their backs. I am reminded of the late Lord Balfour, who gave his name to the Balfour Declaration which gave the Zionists a "homeland in Palestine" if they would bring America into the war. Some years later, Mr. Balfour revealed his naivete about the Jews: he told one of his secretaries that though Britain had helped them establish their homeland in Palestine, they still had not gone there. He was disillusioned and perhaps resentful to find that they were still in Britain.

* * *

Both the Ford Foundation and President Eisenhower are planning to give money to the Communist government of Poland. A United Press dispatch from Chicago, dated May 4, 1957, said the Ford Foundation had announced it was giving $500,000 to the Polish government for use in "philosophical and educational exchanges between Poland and the West". "Henry T. Heald, president of the Foundation, said it was fully aware of the risks involved. 'We are convinced the Western countries could have nothing to fear from intellectual and scholarly contacts with persons from Communist dominated areas.'"

We believe that all the Communists in the world will agree with Mr. Heald and the Ford Foundation.

ZIONIST GRIP . . .

to eat them alive and Communism was their only salvation. They became almost solidly pro-Communist. Then the American Jewish Committee and cohorts set up the cry that Stalin was anti-Semitic. Maybe he was; who knows? Zionists Jews could betray the Soviet Union and get themselves "persecuted" (convicted) if it served the purposes of Zionist propaganda in the West.

Jews throughout the world, both inside and outside of the Soviet Union, had come to worship Stalin during the war. I remember sitting beside a Jewish woman at a soda fountain in Hollywood in 1946 and hearing her talking to the Jewish soda jerker about the great and beloved Stalin. I could not keep from butting into the conversation. I said, "You know, don't you, that some people are trying to say that Stalin is Jewish." She said, "Why, Stalin is Jewish, isn't he?"

Not only have the Jewish people lost Stalin as one of their gods. Even Roosevelt is now known to have made "anti-Semitic" remarks to Stalin at Yalta, where he wise-cracked that he might give King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia America's "six million" Jews as a gesture of "friendship". Roosevelt enjoyed his joke but evidently realized the fatal mistake he had made, for next day, he tried to erase it by mentioning to Stalin that he considered himself a Zionist.

Now another Jewish idol, the United Nations, is tumbling.

Even though their leaders still dominate the hired staffs and failed to control it only on this one issue, the fact is indisputable that many Jewish writers are now attacking the United Nations.

Could it be that the mighty Jewish power machine has passed the peak of its power? At least, for the moment? Maybe it is only in a trough between tidal waves, but as of now, it has definitely less power over the nations of the world than it had three, four or five years ago. Even Eisenhower and Dulles have refused to knuckle under to the Zionist machine. Sometimes Standard Oil and sometimes the USSR gets our preference in Middle East policies. Eisenhower's position, of course, has not been one of favoring the Arabs or one of morality. It has simply been one of yielding to certain immediate pressures.

We Have Made Gains

Israel all but had the Suez Canal in its clutches but Eisenhower for once would not oblige Israel. And Britain, finding itself suddenly without American support, became the timid lion. And, of course, France would risk nothing on her own. So Israel had to back out of Egypt. We had long anticipated that the Communists and Zionists would play a little game of push-pull in the Middle East, one of them or the other bringing about friction so that both could jump into the turmoil out of which both could gain. But it cannot be proved that the Zionist Jews are still able to use the Soviet Union at will. Non-Jews in the Communist bureaucracy undoubtedly have become suspicious of all Jews; it stands to reason that the Communist empire must be turning increasingly nationalist and therefore the Zionists and also the Communist Jews must find it much harder to guide and misguide, trick and use the Communist machinery.

Even inside the United States, even in the House and the Senate, the Jewish Marxist revolution has slowed down. Just now it only creeps forward. We have not been able to elect a President or Vice-President or enough stalwart Senators even in this time of comparative reaction against the Marxist action. The white man still is threatened with "integration" and "civil rights" subjugation.

We are still pouring millions of dollars into Socialist governments in Europe while frustrating the anti-Communist leaders of free China, free Korea and Spain.

But I think many readers of the Intelligence Summary will agree that we have made fabulous gains since the awful days of 1946 and 1947 when the terrorist would harass an anti-Communist speaker with midnight phone calls and throw rotting garbage in his automobile.

Let's go on from here. Let's really get back to fighting the way we used to fight. We will never win if we give up as soon as we make a little gain.

EISENHOWER SCUTTLES

was not going to release Chiang and that he was withholding gasoline and modern arms from Singman Rhee with which Rhee might hope to liberate North Korea—he was bitterly disappointed.

Frequently on Formosa, this man reflected the mood of those desperate fighters for freedom.

At various times the Free Chinese could have bought back the friendship and co-operation of one or more of the Chinese generals who had taken their armies over to the Communists (after America deserted them and left them at the mercy of the Reds). But the Eisenhower administration would not cooperate and in fact could not be trusted with information.

"Let Them Fall . . ."

Obviously, Eisenhower's policy toward the anti-Communist leaders was precisely the same as that of his predecessor, Truman. The only difference was that Eisenhower did a remarkably smooth job of double talking, professing friendship and promising aid to the anti-Communists, while simply doing nothing. Even a blind man could see that the anti-Communists ultimately would come to hate us for our double dealing and false promises.

The inevitable now has arrived. The Chinese people, who have had to stand by on Formosa while the Communist invaders chopped off the heads of 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 of their friends and relatives on the mainland—these former friends of ours have come to hate us, thanks to the duplicity of the President.

In short, Eisenhower has followed the injunction of Owen Lattimore, who instructed a friend and fellow traveler in the Institute of Pacific Relations:

"Let them fall (to Communists—RHW) but don't let it appear that we pushed them."

Within the past seven months Eisenhower has virtually driven away from us the two most valuable allies on the two great geographic fronts where we would have to operate to soften and destroy the Red Empire without a war. Last November, when the Hungarian anti-Red revolutionaries (on the Eastern European front), begged Eisenhower for arms or any help in their then promising fight for freedom, Eisenhower refused and his man Dulles publicly stated that our policy in Eastern Europe must be acceptable to Moscow.

You no doubt read Dulles' statement in the press, and I published it verbatim in the Summary.

While the Hungarians still were standing off the Communist divisions (partly because so many anti-Communist Russian soldiers went over to the Hungarian anti-Communists), the Hungarian leaders arranged with Franco to ship them the needed anti-tank guns.

But Eisenhower and Dulles got wind of the plan and scuttled it. They gave Franco to understand that he must not ship the weapons. I published these facts, also, in the Intelligence Summary, as you doubtless recall.

Now the Hungarians, and their persecuted, enslaved Christian neighbors in Poland and East Germany, have at last been forced to see that Eisenhower is not anti-Communist; that he really meant what he said three and four years ago, and what Dulles said during the Hungarian revolt: that we would not help the captive peoples free themselves from Moscow.

Can We Retrieve?

Thus the President has—certainly for the present—denied us the great potential of the East European front; it will take a new President and a lot of proving to convince them that they dare trust us again, no matter what promises we make.

In sealing off these two great geographic fronts from us like gives the Soviets still more time to develop their war machine. Back in the time of Truman and Acheson it became apparent that all our President and Secretary of State had to do to help the Communists was nothing at all. They had only to do nothing. They had only to keep us from doing anything to hurt the Soviet Empire; for time was what the Soviets needed (while their spies supplied them our scientific secrets).

At any time in the past 10 years, probably at any time since the Bolshevik revolution in 1917, the President of the United States could have destroyed the monster without getting a single American soldier shot, or even sending one to a foreign battlefield. The President had only to send moral encouragement and the weapons of underground warfare to the border countries of the Communist captive empire, and let the captive peoples liberate themselves. In so doing they would cause the disintegration of the Red Empire and thus avoid a third world war.

It still is not too late, in my opinion. If Knowland were President he could convince our betrayed allies that we meant to help them at last. But Eisenhower may resign to let Nixon in and block Knowland, and in any case, we don't dare wait three years.

We must flood the Senate with our angry letters, demanding that Eisenhower be impeached for his betrayal of American interests on both the vast Soviet fronts.

We must demand a quick and convincing reversal of the policies of betrayal—the Eisenhower extension of the Truman-Acheson-Marshall Soviet-First policy. We must demand adoption of the Victory-Without-War policy.

Won't you write 10, 25, 50 or more such letters to Senators, generals and other leaders?

STATEMENT OF POLICY

This publication attacks no man because of his race, but spares no subverter because of his race. The publisher believes that those basic carriers of Communism and political Zionism who attempt to hide behind the Jewish religion must be mercilessly exposed, both to discourage them and to make the American citizen understand the nature of the subversive attack against this nation, its institutions and its people. The publisher urges the Jews of America to repudiate their vicious leaders and embrace Americanism, thereby preventing the tragic race conflict fomented by the revolutionists.

WHO KILLED JOSEPH McCARTHY?

Dear Subscriber:

Joseph McCarthy's widow and some others said the Senator was crushed by the Senate vote of condemnation. She said he never was the same again, in spirit or physical energy. If Senator Watkins has any conscience left he must be ashamed to look at himself in the mirror.

There seems to be a growing suspicion that the Marxist revolutionaries are finding ways to kill ("liquidate" is their word) the most capable of our leaders by invisible means. It certainly was worth noting that the two-man team who were almost sure to recapture the government from the Socialist New Deal in the 1952 presidential struggle, Senators Wherry and Taft, both died of cancer in a short time, Wherry a few months before the 1952 GOP convention, Taft a few months after. It is well known that you can induce cancer by various ways, such as sprinkling radio active dust under a chair cushion or planting a tube of radium in the upholstery of a chair.

Taft and Wherry, together, made an invincible team, extremely dangerous to the world Marxist revolution. Joseph McCarthy likewise was dangerous to that evil movement. Doctors attributed his death to hepatitis, a disease of the liver. While many things reportedly can induce or prepare the way for this ailment, Dr. Walter Alvarez, in his column in the Los Angeles Times a few months ago, warned against blood transfusions except where absolutely necessary, saying that it was not uncommon for one person to transmit hepatitis to another (without knowing it) by transfusions. McCarthy was in the Naval hospital many times during his last years, once for a very serious operation, and it is a fact, obvious by merely walking through any federal hospital, that various of the badly indoctrinated racial minorities swarm these hospitals as doctors and nurses.

I do not want to let my judgment become warped; we can do no more than speculate about the use of invisible death until and unless somebody is caught; and it is not easy to catch a skilled revolutionary in such practice.

But we do know that the Communist and the Zionist revolutionaries are past masters of secrecy and practice crime on a grand scale; and we know that a former Communist identified a Party member who had boasted that he was assigned the job of liquidating McCarthy. The accused Communist, under oath before the McCarthy internal security subcommittee, refused either to deny or admit the accusation, taking the Fifth Amendment.

The sad fact is that McCarthy is dead and millions of us for whose freedom he fought, for whom he took so much abuse, are saddened at his loss, and the forces fighting to save the Republic are weakened.

You and I carry on as best we can, and must carry on, while others rise to take the place of Wherry, Taft and McCarthy. In my own fight I am so limited by the dribble of orders and subscriptions that I cannot say how long I can keep on. The federal tax bleeding period, up to April 15, cut our financial support drastically, and the response to our May issue, though greatly appreciated, was not nearly enough to meet past-due printing and other bills. I keep wondering if the fault is mine —or are we letting the enemy discourage us in our fight?

While thousands of us worked diligently mailing out and handing out quantities of booklets explaining the historic nature of the Marxist threat, we made glorious and gratifying progress. We have got to get back to such basic educational work if we expect to keep on gaining ground. I am listing herewith all of our publications which are in print, in the hope that you can make good use of them. I especially hope you will want to concentrate on the June issue of the Summary, urging Senators and other leaders to fight for the Victory Without War strategy to retrieve our losses in the Far East and in Eastern Europe.

AUGUST, 1957

Dear Subscriber:

For some time I have been holding on my desk the article which appears in the August Summary. The documentation is so powerful and so important in understanding both the international and the domestic struggle in which we are caught, that I have decided not to hold up its publication till the adjournment of Congress (as I had intended).

It is, in fact, of great importance to the Congressmen. The one thing we need above all else is for the law makers to understand precisely the contents of the August issue of the Summary. I can say so without immodesty, this time, for that article was contributed -- the work of an exceptionally capable and well informed researcher, a person of admirable character and devotion to the cause of freedom, whose identity cannot be disclosed.

Please do all you can with this article, the key to so much that is happening and threatening. I am printing an extra quantity of it.

I must tell you that ever since, a year or more ago, I said I would never again get out a "begging" letter, to all of you, the financial response to our work has been much less than before. Many of you have written, urging me not to quit asking for money for this work. One subscriber recently wrote: "I am helping various patriotic organizations, a little here, a little there. But I notice that I help those who ask for it." So if I don't ask, I am not apt to get anything.

I will, however, urge you to send us orders, to make the widest possible use of the factual, significant articles we try to furnish as ammunition. I firmly believe that the Truth will make us free. I have confidence that your orders will carry us through another month.

RED PROPHETS SEE VICTORY IN THIS CENTURY; TELL HOW THEY LED COMMUNIST REVOLUTION

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was written by a gifted researcher. It reveals the heart of the world revolution. The reader will doubtless feel that the revolution, rooted in 2500 years of secret conniving, is swiftly reaching a climax which might decide the winner for "the end of days" — meaning the rest of time. — RHW

If you, as an American Christian, can look at both sides of a globe of this world with a steady eye and turn it with a steady hand, you are a courageous person and you might help save that world from calculated destruction. Try it.

And globe as it is, it does have two sides. Notice that one side holds in one continuous body, all of Europe, Asia and Africa. Not three separated bodies, but one great land mass. It holds also Australia, small beside Asia-Africa-Europe, but as big as the United States!

See how small, by comparison, and how extended geographically are the Americas. Now look again at the other half; notice the giant size and the position of the Soviet Union. And notice that the new State of Israel stands in the heart, the key spot, of the world's great land mass—the crossroads of the world. It is of paramount importance to take note of these geographic facts, as we believe the reader will agree in view of the situation described below.

Both Israel and the USSR occupy these strategic areas with the help of the United States — your help — in a continuing process; the USSR, at present, through "foreign aid" to her developing fringe areas, and Israel through continual direct assistance.

U.S. $ Pour Into Israel

Let's look at the aid program. By August 1951 (See Facts and Figures, Israel Office of Information.) "a Treaty of Friendship, Commerce, and Navigation between the United States and Israel . . . (was) signed . . . based upon the principles of national and most-favored nation treatment, . . . (for) regulation and promotion of economic relations between the two countries."

In February, 1951, a "Point Four Agreement (was) signed by the United States and Israel, under which Israel will receive technical assistance in a variety of development fields."

In 1952, the "United States Congress (granted) . . . $73,000,000 security aid to Israel for the fiscal year 1952-3, for the integration of immigrants and technical assistance."

June, 1955, "The United States . . . (leased) to Israel 13.2 lbs. (6 kgs) of uranium enriched up to U-235 for development of peaceful uses for atomic energy. This atomic fuel . . . (to) be used for the reactor to be constructed in Israel."

("Israel has large deposits of low grade uranium ores, such as phosphate. The cost of extraction by a special method in Israel is commensurate with the cost of that produced from rich ores by usual methods.")

1935 France and Israel concluded an agreement for cooperation in the development of nuclear energy. Facts and Figures)

September, '51, Ben Gurion convened the first "Jerusalem Economic Conference of American Jewish leaders". October 1954, occurred the Second Jerusalem Economic Conference "attended by 150 leaders of Jewish communities from the United States, Great Britain, France, Canada, South Africa, Argentina, Australia, Mexico, and Switzerland resolv(ed) to continue economic aid of World Jewry for the development of Israel". (Ibid.)

There were the bond drives in the United States and later United States grants. And each year Israeli kinsmen in America raise from $50,000,000 to $150,000,000 from contributions, incredible as the feat may seem.

Such help enables these two forces to control and re-arrange the big half of the globe. How does this concern you, the Christian American? Communist Russia speaks the answer frankly in her ultimate aim: To unify both sides of the globe into her own system. But what of Israel? Israel may be very important if, as William Zukerman in Jewish Newsletter states. "No distinction is made between the Jews of the world and Israel". For world Jewry may be seen as a comprehensive power. So if Israel is your friend, you have a strong ally in opposing the Soviet forces. And it is generally believed that Israel does oppose these forces.

Israel Largely Socialist

But does she? Let's remember the look of that globe and do a bit of further research, beginning with Israel. Israel's cabinet has sixteen members. (See Facts and Figures.) Of the sixteen, nine — including Mr. Ben Gurion — belong to the Mapai party, which is: "A Zionist Socialist party aiming at the gathering in of the Jewish people, . . . the up-building of the State of Israel, and a Socialist regime . . . Its internal policy stands for . . . state-planned economy. Its foreign policy stands for non-identification with any bloc (This, it is important to remember.) . . . and the strengthening of the political and moral authority of the United Nations. . ." (Ibid.)

Two Israeli cabinet members belong to Mapam, the "United Workers Party." Its Program: "A left wing Zionist Socialist party aiming at the gathering in of the Jewish people within a Socialist Jewish State . . . an active anti-fascist policy aiming at permanent international peace, and friendship between Israel and the Soviet Union . . ." (You may recall that Stalin defined Nazi as any person opposing Communism.)

Two members of Israel's cabinet are Mizrachi-Hapoel Hanizrahi, a party demanding that "the state be based on the Torah (Book of Moses), and Jewish law with unlimited immigration." (Looking at the globe, imagine what "unrestricted immigration" from world Jewry into the present Israel would mean, especially in frightening and threatening the Moslems, possibly igniting a world war).

Two members are Abdui Haayda, whose program is ". . . no interest other than of all the workers. . . the struggle for the historical general interests of the Hebrew working class (Bear in mind the import of historical.); the rescue of the people, the ingathering of the exiles and a Socialist State of Israel in the entire homeland." (The entire homeland is a broad claim and hints at territorial expansion, hence war.)

One cabinet member is progressive. The progressive program is "non-Socialist but with liberal tendencies comprising both middle and working-class memberships . . ."

Do these policies sound pro-American to you? Or do they sound like Communist Russia? Let us do some further research along the same line, but regarding the USSR.

A recognized authority is A. L. Patkin, an authority on the "Russian" Revolution (which was really anti-Russian, against the Russian people and government), because he was himself a member of the Revolution, a member of the Moscow City Council in 1917; and was vice-president of the Jewish Volkspartei.

Patkin has written a history of the Revolution under the title, The Origins of the Russian Jewish Labor Movement (F. W. Cheshire Pty. Ltd. Melbourne, 1947). He says of that movement, "Marxism is its shell, but its kernel is Jewish Sociology, Jewish currents of thought, Jewish religious and social ethics — and above all, the Jewish emotional belief in the 'end of days' which has been the basic attribute of Judaism and Jewishness since the days of the ancient prophets."

His history goes on to describe the two Jewish streams of revolutionary thought which conditioned the Russian people for the Revolution: (1) Marxism, which influenced Russian and Jewish intellectuals, and (2) Chassidism, which made possible the revolt of labor and the Russian masses. How swiftly those streams broadened and deepened, Patkin pictures by stating that it was only 140 years from the time Catherine the Great opened the Polish Pale to admit Jews into Russia until the successful revolution in 1917.

In this connection, the percentage of Jewish persons before 1917 is interesting. It ranged from 12 percent of the population within the Pale to five percent in Russia proper. But they were 41 percent of the urban population inside the Pale, and in Russia, practically all five percent were urban. Patkin shows then, this urban percentage, closely knit in group background and of superior literacy — even if essentially Jewish literacy — as conditioning the more simple and generally rural Russian population. Clearly, both the inspiration or incitation, and the leadership of the revolution were Jewish.

The explanation of the reason for Catharine's opening the Pale is interesting and a' propos, since it was due to her personal friendship with Voltaire and Diderot. Voltaire and Diderot were at that time opposing the church and working toward revolution in France.

Names Authors of Communism

Speaking of the process of the "Russian" Revolution, Patkin says,

"The way the Jewish workers organized themselves around their trade unions and political parties, celebrated their various revolutionary and Socialist festivals, as on May 1st, . . . was equally marked with traces of the Jewish traditional pattern . . . It was a faith emanating from the very depths of . . . (their) Jewish soul. The inherited belief in the messianic 'end of days' . . . was only intensified by the new methods of Socialist and revolutionary propaganda . . . It was the 'end of days' which prompted . . . (them) to act, to strike, and to revolt."

It may be said here that the "end of days" is to the Jew what the establishment of world Communism is to the Communist. This the Christian should ponder.

"The Jewish youth, . . . some formally converted to Christianity, . . . worked underground under assumed names, now as teachers, now as vagabond preachers . . ."

Of the Jewish intellectuals zealously bringing on the Revolution, Patkin mentions, among many others, Mark Natanson, who "was the first in Russia to unite all the existing scattered revolutionary cells into one central organization, and as such, his services to the cause cannot be over-estimated. . . (he) played a great part in the moulding of the revolutionary spirit among the university youth."

It was Nicolas Utin who "formed the Russian section of the International and was appointed its representative on the General Council. . . . Utin must be considered indeed the first (foremost?—RHW) Russian Marxist."

Religious - Communist Jews

Paul Axelrod "has been ranked as the spiritual father of Russian Socialism in its Marxian interpretation, . . . occupies a unique position of authority . . . not only in the Russian but also in the General European Movement."

"Vladimir Jachelson . . . at the age of 12 . . . was already versed in Talmudic literature and knew the Bible (Torah) almost by heart, was an active member of the party 'Narodnaja Volia' . . . and took part in all its terroristic acts directed against the Tzar and the heads of the Government."

The Narodnaja Volia was "a progressive revolutionary movement . . . responsible for a number of courageous terroristic acts, including the assassination of Alexander II himself."

"Grigori Goldenburg was entrusted with the assassination of the Charkov Governor-General, Prince Kropotkin . . ."

"The (Jewish Socialist) movement was engineered by Aaron Liberman, who was already active in the first Vilna revolutionary circle of 1872, organized among the students of the Rabbinical school . . . a Socialist-Zionist . . ."

"Liberman was the first to formulate the idea of Jewish Socialism in the following terms: 'To us Jews, Socialism is not a strange phenomenon. The 'commune' . . . is our very existence, revolution our tradition, solidarity is the basis of our Torah. . . . Our ancient social order was anarchy, our human relationships were based on the principles of the International. The great prophets of our modern times, the Jews Marx, Lasalle, etc., were brought up in the spirit of our people . . ."

". . . the first Vilna revolutionary circle . . . consisted of members mainly recruited from the students of the Rabbinical College."

"It was in the soil of Vilna that the seeds of the Jewish Labor Movement as a mass movement were sown, and it was from this 'Jerusalem of Lithuania' that the new gospel of International Socialism in its Marxian scientific garb went around . . . pre-revolutionary Russia . . ."

Patkin himself later went from Russia to Australia and became the editor of The Zionist, the official organ of the Australian and New Zealand Zionist Federation. He is also considered an "authority on Russian political and legal questions." (Jack-et biography.)

Notice that these ardent Jewish Communists are also ardent Zionists and many of them ardent students of the Jewish religion!

Referring to Zionism, Patkin states that "Zionism and Socialism . . . have conquered the minds of the Jewish masses and Intelligentsia in the last quarter of the 19th century." He states further that "the high rate of Jewish active participation in the Red armed forces, (together with the Jewish situation in Germany in the second world war), have brought the Jewish people all over the world into intimate contact of mind and heart with the Soviet Nations".

Dual Citizenship of Zionists

Speaking of the unification of the intellectuals and the masses under Zionism and Socialism, Patkin says, "Zionism gave the Jewish masses an enlightened intelligentsia; the Vilna Jewish Social-Democrats, not without the influence of the new wave of Zionist awakening, gave the intelligentsia back to the people."

It was Jule Osipovich Zederbaum who developed the emphasis of the national element of this unity. Then Theodor Harzl "created a stir with a pamphlet, The Jewish State, in 1895". In September 1897, Harzl summoned to Basle, in Switzerland, the first Zionist Congress at which the foundations were laid for the "restoration" of Israel.

Of permanent significance is Patkin's reminder that "The social code of Zionism and the newly emerged Socialism were almost the same . . . They both joined and merged in time."

A graphic example of the application of this "social code" is the Kibbutz or socialized farms in present Israel. "Facts and Figures" states that the payment for work on the farms is on the "basis to each according to his needs, and from each according to his capacities, . . . each family . . . receiving money in accordance to the size of his family." This Zionist slogan is a close paraphrase of the slogan of Karl Marx in his Communist Manifesto: To each according to his needs; from each according to his ability.

Another Russia-like statement from "Facts and Figures" is that 70 percent of all children in Israel from three to six years old are in kindergarten (where they are under State indoctrination).

Patkin summarizes thus: "The Jewish people is a nation not only on account of its separate language, tradition, cultural pattern, etc., but because in all that inert ness (the Jewish masses) a feeling of belonging, a deep psychological attraction lives and breathes."

So Patkin agrees with Zukerman that no distinction is made between the Jews of the world and Israel. "Facts and Figures" states: "The acquisition of Israel nationality is not dependent upon renunciation of previous nationality."

Contemplate the significance of this dual citizenship; all Jews in our country who cooperate with and give aid and comfort to the Zionists are in effect accepting the world citizenship of the Zionist world order. Tying this fact of Jewish unity to the process of the Russian Revolution, it is not surprising to find as a matter of further research, — and it is of the utmost importance for the Christian American — that the government set up in Russia in 1917 should have been Jewish in leadership and personnel. A list of the principal leaders of the new Bolshevik dictatorship was published by the London Post in 1920, the Post showing that of fifty persons who were "either the actual governing powers in Soviet Russia" or "responsible for the establishment thereof of the . . . regime", all but seven were Jewish. Two of the remaining seven were known to have Jewish mothers, and a third had a Jewish wife.

The list gives their real names and their acquired pseudonyms. Thus Axelrod (Ak-selrode) became Ortodoks; Natanson (Natansson) became Vobrov; Rosenfeld became Kamanev; Bronstein became Trotsky; Oulianov became Lenin; Apfelbaum, Zinoviev; Wallack, Litvinov (alias Finkelstein), etc.

So much, from "Facts and Figures" (1955) as to Israel; so much, from Patkin and the London Post regarding Communist Russia and Israel.

Israel to Hold Our Coat?

Just now the emphasis on the activity of Soviet Russia and Israel is in the big half of the globe, an activity, if analyzed, to a great extent supported by the American willingly or unwillingly. The American should take a long look to see where such activity is leading.

Since the terms Christian and Jew have been used, let us include the other great religions and their millions of people—the Moslems, Buddhists and Hindus. And let us line them up in relation to Christians and Jews. In the heart of the greatest land area of the earth, it is already Jew versus Moslem; also England and France versus the Moslem. And since the U.S. has, in general set up and supported Israel, and is the avowed friend of England and France, she has to a far extent, alienated the Moslem.

But Russia pretends friendship to the Moslem, the Buddhist, the Hindu — the Middle East, China, India. So the line-up seems to be Russia-India-China-the Middle East versus Israel - France-England-The United States. But since the majority of Israel's Cabinet pledges identification with no bloc of nations, apparently Christians, alone, are to fight the Moslems, Buddhists, Hindus, as well as former Christians in Russia — we fighting Israel's war, while Israel holds our coat.

Who wins, when the "religions" have exhausted each other? The man who holds the coats? And what will he win? The "end of days" and the World Revolution?

It may be that just here, the Christian American, being Christian, may recall the very practical advice of a very practical Jew, who—because the aim of Zionism and Socialism is really very old, reaching back to the time the Jewish people beheld such world empires as Egypt, Babylon, Greece, and Rome—knew both very well. He opposed their aim, knowing the Jewish people were capable of something better. In fact, being practical, He gave His life and death for that purpose. Fear of that practicality is doubtless why Bibles need to be flown into Russian territory now on a high wind. To the American Christian, He left some very a' propos advice—for He had just been speaking of the house of Israel and its desire for earthly power—Be ye therefore wise as serpents, He said, and harmless as doves.

Jews Owned Suez Canal

If the Christian American has done his own research along with his globe gazing, he will have doubtless seen, appearing here and there, an interesting thread. After a while he may have suspected its importance and that it pertains to himself, since it seems to have been kept a secret from him. He will have noticed, for instance, that Patkin relates Chassidism — which together with Marxism, prepared Russia for the Revolution — to the word Kabbalah (Cabala, Qabalah). And it is the word Kabbalah which appears now and then in the research on Russian-Jewish Socialism; and after a while, becomes a tantalizing incidental. Let's look at it first in the dictionary.

Webster's unabridged defines cabal as "a secret", "an occult doctrine"; "the machinations of a few persons united in a close design"; "intrigue". Webster defines Cabala as 'a kind . . . of occult theosophy or mystical interpretation of the scriptures among Jewish rabbis . . . at first handed down orally through chosen individuals, but later committed to writing . . .'. "Secret or esoteric doctrine." Following Webster's lead, esoteric means "understood by the especially initiated alone."

Patkin completes the initial idea by stating that "The origins of the Chassidic philosophy must be traced back to purely Jewish mediaeval sources of mysticism and Kabbalah. This relation of the Chassidic movement to the Kabbalah, Time Magazine amplified March 25, '57, in a footnote to a story under Religion. The story told how the Chassidics officially moved into and over the United States in 1940. (Time Magazine seems not to be aware of the significance of their arrival.)

But the footnote describes the cabala as: "An esoteric system of speculation or metaphysics, which went in for much symbolical manipulation of words and names. (The Christian might be surprised to learn that Christ's terms, serpent and dove are cabalic symbols.) "The cabala", continues the footnote, "originated in Palestine but came under strong Babylon influence . . . Its best-known work, the Zohar, compiled in the 13th century, had a strong influence on Hasidism (Chassidism)."

Since Chassidism is revolutionary and has spread among Jews all over the United States since 1940, its religio-political nature and its relation to the Kabbalah should impress the American Christian—and the FBI—as of importance.

Going back to Voltaire and Diderot, whose personal friendship with Catherine the Great of Russia helped prepare the way for the setting up of the Soviet Government, research would reveal that they also, working toward the French Revolution, belonged to such a group. Another Frenchman contrived the esoteric doctrine which Webster defines as Saint-Simonism, or "his socialistic system, in which the state owns the property and the laborer is entitled to share according to the quality and amount of his work."

It may be noted here — the American being concerned for the fate of the Middle East, now caught between Russia and Israel — that it was the Saint-Simonians (termed a semi-religious group) who in that period set up as a program the cutting of a Suez canal. They were not very original in their idea since the first of a number of such waterways was opened there by Sisostris, a Pharaoh 2000 years B.C. (See Breasted's "A History of Egypt", Scribners)

And so it logically was the Jew, Ferdinand de Lesseps, who undertook the scheme of the Suez for the Simonians. While he worked the Egyptian end of the scheme to appropriately weaken Egypt, it was the Jewish Disraeli who managed to secretly insinuate an advisor into the Turkish court whose unsound counsel began the eventual break-up of the Turkish Empire. (See Monypenny, Buckle, Life of Benjamin Disraeli, John Murray, London)

So much for the Simonians, but it was also Disraeli, who in early life, said, "There is that within me which may yet mould . . . the fortune of my race." (Ibid.) In his book "Alroy", Disraeli pictured the "winning back of the independence of Israel and restoring her glory." (Ibid.)

"Alroy", he said in its preface, "is cabalistic and correct." Its hero "sweeps through Asia on a tide of victory and conquest."

Disraeli's artful effort brought the Suez and Egypt under control of England, though the effort was his own and that of his French cousins, the Rothschilds. Disraeli considered its success the greatest of his long career. (See Monypenny.)

Holocaust Planned?

Another noteworthy secret group, according to one of its interpreters, J. E. Esslemont, built its "first temple in Ishqabad, Russia, its second a few miles north of Chicago." (Baha' Ullah and the New Era.) This is the Bahai group, begun about 1845, with headquarters now in Israel. It centers its activities about college and university areas in the United States and elsewhere, receives excellent publicity from university publications, local press and Life Magazine.

Esslemont, referring to the "end of days" mentioned above, which so strongly motivated the Chassidics, explains that "Last Day" is interpreted as "dispensation", the day of the "Supreme Manifestation". It is the 'Last Day because it is a day that shall never end'. The idea becomes clearer when Esslemont states further that "Abdu'l-Baha . . . shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth".

The Christian may feel that prophecy here is spoken intent when Esslemont relates that in 1875, Abdu'l-Baha forecast "the establishment of a Universal League of Nations and expressed the . . . assurance that the banner of international peace would be first raised in America . . . when we shall have the Parliament of Man, of which the prophets have dreamed".

He may also better understand the purpose of the United Nations when he learns that while addressing the Theosophists in 1913, Abdu'l-Baha's successor stated, "This century is the Century of the Kingdom of God". Theosophy is a kindred group to the Bahai; it was originated by the Russian Jewess, Madame Blavatsky in 1875. H. D. Blavatsky lists "the great knowledge, the magic of the Kabbalists" as the second of the four general categories of "esoteric knowledge". (Practical Occultism, Theosophical Press, Wheaton, Ill.)

In describing the newly set-up Kingdom,

Baha'u'llah added: "The entire harbor from Akka to Haifa will be one path of illumination . . . Mt. Carmel . . . will be submerged in a sea of lights. A person on Mount Carmel will look upon the most sublime spectacle of the whole world". The Kingdom's "divine economy" will involve "some form of a super-state (which) must needs be evolved in whose favor all nations . . . will . . . have . . . ceded every claim to make war, (and) certain rights to impose taxation". "Such a state will have to include an International executive adequate to enforce supreme . . . authority . . . a world community in which . . . capricious nationalism will have been transmitted into . . . world citizenship . . ." ". . . modes of life which have persisted from the dawn of history will be quickly, irrevocably, altered".

Mr. Esslemont says in setting up such a Super-State, "the forces of a world catastrophe can alone precipitate such a new phase . . . Nothing but a fiery ordeal . . . can succeed in implanting that sense of responsibility which . . . leaders of a new-born age must arise to shoulder."

~~Did Esslemont foresee the hydrogen bomb?~~

The American Christian is not likely to find comfort in the assurance that "destroying is the cause of rebuilding . . . then verily this fury is a kindness itself." (Ibid.) But perhaps he will take out here to do some real digging on the personnel who develop, supervise, and use atomic power. Let him note too, that this esoteric group has been given by the Israeli Government, "a special Department in the Ministry for Religious Affairs"! ("Facts and Figures," Israel Office of Information, 1955) ("Facts and Figures" says also that the Druzes have been given, by the Israeli Government, "the status of a separate religious community with autonomy in their religious affairs". And it adds, "Their rites and dogmas are a close secret." Everyman's Encyclopedia states that the Druzes profess an "esoteric unitarianism".

So do the Baha'i adherents, the Theosophists, the Saint-Simonians, the Communists, and many another group with a different name but an identical program. The Baha'i doctrine says "A disciple must fully recognize that the very thought of individual rights is only the outcome of the venomous quality of the snake of Self." Also "the embodiment of liberty and its symbol is the animal . . . Liberty debaseth . . . to the level of extreme depravity and wickedness". (Esslemont.)

These sentiments from the cultists who, in our country, cry loudest for liberty and their rights!

The London newspaper correspondent, Robert Wilton, who barely got out of Russia with his life and with one of the five copies of his report, says (Last Days of the Romanoffs) the Russian Revolution would have been impossible without Rasputin—Rasputin who was a Baha'i or a Theosophist or of whatever name of the same was prevalent just there. Wilton says it was very fashionable among the Russian royalty! He further calls Count Witte—Russia's Jewish minister of foreign affairs—Rasputin's "arch-apologist". Count Witte was a close relative of the Silvermasters in whose American home Elizabeth Bentley and her Communist associates used to meet. (Bentley's own account.)

Dion Fortune's "The Mystical Qabalah" (Williams and Norgate, Ltd. London, 1935) says "This ancient mystical tradition of the Hebrews possessed three literatures . . . the Old Testament; the Talmud . . . ; and the Qabalah, or mystical interpretation thereof." " . . . the closing clause of the Lord's Prayer is pure Qabalism . . . Whoever formulated that prayer knew his Qabalah." Thus the "Thine" takes on fuller meaning, as does "Deliver us from evil."

Dion Fortune (a name with a cabalistic symbolical sound) goes on to state that "Meekness, mercy, purity, and love . . . are have virtues. Christianity has nothing to tell us about the dynamic virtues; consequently those who get the world's work done cannot follow the Christian ideal. We must adore the God of Battles as well as the God of Love".

" . . . those races whose evolutionary destiny it is to conquer on the physical plane have evolved a . . . technique . . . based upon the Qabalah, the Wisdom of Israel."

wonder that Christ in opposition cified, My Kingdom is not of this world; or that He admonished his disciples, be ye therefore, wise as serpents and harmless as doves. What a challenge to us: Be ye wise! Be ye harmless! From one who also cried: Father forgive them for they know not what they do! Nothing of all that has changed. The same people, the same aim.

Red Jews Launch Attack On German NATO Commander

The following excerpts from a column by the Jewish Marxist Milton Friedman, which appeared in the California Jewish Voice and numerous other Jewish papers in America, on or about June 14, 1957, will no doubt interest many Americans:

"A storm may erupt over the emergence of facts revealing that the General commanding NATO's land forces in Central Europe helped arrange the murder of Jewish and other hostages in World War II.

"When Lt. Hans Speidel was approved by the United States as NATO commander, it was known that Speidel would command U.S. troops in the NATO structure. Washington officials sought to portray Speidel as a German with a 'clean record' and '100 percent anti-Nazi'. His appointment was thought politically expedient. Washington hoped selection of a German for the NATO post would induce reluctant West Germans to support more extensive remilitarization.

"Today British authorities have come into possession of official Wehrmacht documents of 1941-42. These documents establish that Speidel, as German Chief of Staff in Paris, was personally involved in the Nazi hostage system involving brutal reprisals against the French population, especially Jews.

"One document is a February 28, 1942 report, over Speidel's name, from Paris to the Supreme Command in Berlin. It reveals that when the French underground struck against the invaders, German revenge was exacted by shooting and deporting hostages described as 'Communists' and 'Jews'.

"The 1942 Speidel report said: 'The following security measures have been taken . . . six Communists and Jews were shot in Paris on 3.2.42. One hundred Communists and Jews were transported to Compeigne for deportation to the East. As a reprisal for the attack in Rouen on a member of the Wehrmacht, 25 Communists and Jews were shot on 21.21.42. As a reprisal for the attack in Tours, extensive raids on Communists and Jews were carried out, also leading to arrests. In connection with some of the above measures, 1,000 Jews and Communists were ordered to be brought to German prisons in readiness for deportation to the East.' . . .

"The London Daily Express has opened a campaign to expose the American-sponsored NATO commander . . ."

Unfortunately, you and I cannot know whether or not the so-called document is authentic or is another of the many faked documents which the Communists and associated Jewish revolutionaries have come up with since the war (including reports that Hitler killed several million Jews).

And still another consideration is the fact, self-evident even in the report that it was "Communists and Jews" who were involved in the crimes described therein. As for use of the word "Jews" together with "Communists" they were almost synonymous in Germany and France during the second world war, in which the Germans were defending themselves against the frightening threat of annihilation by the bloody Jewish-organized Red Empire.

Over and above these reflections on things past is the fact that the Jewish Reds once more have launched a drive to get rid of Hans Speidel as an important general in the West. This gives me still more confidence in Speidel's leadership on behalf of the Western world.

Widow of Robert Wilton Writes Us From Paris

A few weeks after publication of the January, 1957, issue of the Intelligence Summary, in which I quoted at length from The Last Days of the Romanoffs, I had the delightful surprise of a letter from the widow of the noted author of that book, the courageous British correspondent in Russia, Robert Wilton. Mrs. Wilton's letter from 35 Ave. Franklin Roosevelt, Paris 8, France, follows:

Dear Mr. Williams:

I read in your "Intelligence Summary" — Volume 9—No. 2 — that the book "The Last Days of the Romanows" was by G. G. Telberg. That is not right. This book was written by my husband, Robert Archibald Wilton, and was first published in London and later in Paris, where we lived after we had been ruined by the Russian revolution. My husband also wrote "Russia's Agony". I think this book was first published in England.

I have a copy of each of these books and I also had a copy of the third document on the enquiry on the murder of the Romanow family, since it was my husband, together with Sokolof, examining magistrate, who discovered the truth on this horrible crime and found out that none of the 11 persons who had been killed was saved. So you realise there is no 'Anastasia' or any such fraud which a certain group of people would like to revive with the purpose of getting the 40,000,000 gold rubles which the Czar had placed in France.

Will you be kind enough to put this matter straight and excuse my letter — I am French and the English language is not so easy for me.

Yours very sincerely,

Diane Wilton

We would be the last on earth to want to rob the heroic Robert Wilton of an ounce of the credit due him. Mrs. Wilton somewhat misinterpreted the way we "billed" his book. We copied the names of author and co-author directly from the title page of the American edition (published by George H. Doran Co., New York, 1920). Here is what we published about the authorship:

"I want to quote at some length from one of the best books ever written on the Bolshevik Revolution, The Last Days of the Romanoffs by George Gustav Telberg, Professor of Law in Saratov University and Former Minister of Justice of the Russian Government at Omsk, and Robert Wilton, long time Russian correspondent of the London Times."

Throughout our article, however, we referred only to Wilton as the author, as it is generally known that the book was, as Mrs. Wilton says, his own. I notice the English edition does not list a co-author with Wilton.

The Light Hurts Their Eyes

Under the above head, the California Jewish Voice of June 28, 1957, ran the following mysterious, intriguing Jewish Telegraph Agency dispatch from Tel Aviv.

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Many children and teenagers brought to Israel recently, have developed deep personal problems as a result of the sudden awareness that they are Jews, Moshe Kol, head of the Youth Aliyah movement reported here.

Mr. Kol declared that some of the youngsters who did not know they were Jews, until brought to Israel by the child rescue movement suffered from psychological shock. For those who cannot cope with this shock, the Youth Aliyah leaders continued, individualized attention is provided in Youth Aliyah centers.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

This publication attacks no man because of his race, but spares no subverter because of his race. The publisher believes that those basic carriers of Communism and political Zionism who attempt to hide behind the Jewish religion must be mercilessly exposed, both to discourage them and to make the American citizen understand the nature of the subversive attack against this nation, its institutions and its people. The publisher urges the Jews of America to repudiate their vicious leaders and embrace Americanism, thereby preventing the tragic race conflict fomented by the revolutionists.

BOMBINGS AND ATTEMPTED BOMBINGS
IN SOUTHERN COMMUNITIES
RACIAL MATTERS

ReBuairtel to all continental offices dated October 13, 1958, captioned "Informant Coverage In Organizations Which May Be Engaged In Violent Activities Involving Minority Groups" and SAC Letter 58-63 dated October 13, 1958, dealing with press statements in bombing cases having apparent racial or religious basis.

In carrying out our responsibilities to give full assistance to local police departments and in determining whether any Federal violations under the Bureau's jurisdiction exist with respect to bombings and attempted bombings, there is a possibility that "hate" groups such as the Washington White Citizens Council, the National States Rights Party and the Confederate Underground may be involved either in the planning of or the actual carrying out of these terroristic activities. As a part of our over-all investigative effort to determine the identities of those responsible for the bombings, the Bureau has initiated a program of immediately launching intensive investigations of "hate" groups. It should be kept firmly in mind at all times that the primary purpose of the intensive investigations of these "hate" groups is to determine whether the leaders or members of these groups are involved in any way in the bombings which have taken place since January 1, 1957.

In order to assist the field, the Bureau has compiled the following list of known "hate" groups for use in implementing this program.

White Citizens Council of the District of Columbia, also known as Washington
White Citizens Council
100-423395

(Washington Field)

This organization, headed by Frederick John Kasper, the notorious segregationist, is violently anti-Semitic and anti-Negro.
The organization was responsible for an extensive antisegregation literature campaign in 1957 and 1958.

"Williams Intelligence Summary"
105-10091

(Los Angeles)

This publication is a monthly news letter of obvious anti-Semitic nature prepared by Robert H. Williams, Santa Ana, California. Williams claims to have vast experience in the intelligence field dealing with the communist menace. However, pertinent records reflect he was associated in a limited capacity with Air Force Intelligence during World War II. Material printed by Williams is often reprinted in "hate" publications such as "Common Sense."

Each office of origin of the groups listed above should launch an immediate investigation to determine whether these groups could be connected in any way with any of the bombings which have occurred since January 1, 1957. In order to accomplish this, it will be necessary to determine the present leaders and membership of the groups and to establish the pattern of their activities during the pertinent period, that is whether they have advocated violence or are of such a radical nature as to present a potential for violence.
These cases must be assigned to mature, experienced Agents and must receive the personal supervision of the Assistant Special Agent in Charge or Special Agent in Charge. Careful planning must go into the approach to these investigations and it is expected the appropriate initiative and ingenuity will be exercised to achieve results.
Sufficient manpower must be assigned in order that all investigation may be handled promptly and a determination can be made as to whether any of these groups are involved in the bombings. You must, of course, comply with instructions set forth in reairtel to develop sufficient informant coverage so that you will be advised on a continuing basis of the plans and activities of these groups.

Re: BOMBINGS AND ATTEMPTED
BOMBINGS IN SOUTHERN COMMUNITIES

Each office of origin must advise the Bureau within ten days of receipt of this communication that an investigation has been launched of the groups in its jurisdiction together with an outline of the investigative plan and the number of Agents assigned to carry out the investigation. Thereafter, reports must be submitted each thirty days until the Bureau advises to the contrary or until the group under investigation has definitely been eliminated as having any connection with the bombings. Of course, any significant development in the case should be promptly furnished to the Bureau by whatever means of communication deemed warranted. All communications and reports submitted concerning a specific group should bear the title of the group with the character Internal Security - X; Racial Matters. The original and four copies of reports must be submitted.

In connection with the over-all program, all offices must search their indices to determine whether there are other "hate" groups than those listed above. In the event any such groups are located in the search of the files the Bureau should be promptly advised of the identity of the group together with a statement as to whether investigation is being initiated. If investigation is not to be undertaken, complete justification for not so doing should be included in the communication to the Bureau.

All offices except the offices of origin in the groups listed above should search their files for information concerning the above-listed groups and promptly furnish such information, where not previously done, to the Bureau and the offices of origin. In addition all offices should contact logical informants and sources in order to develop any information available concerning the possible identities of individuals who may have some connection or knowledge of the bombings which have taken place since January 1, 1957. The Bureau should be advised by October 28, 1958, the results of file searches and the contacts with logical informants and sources and all offices should continue to be alert for and alert their logical informants and sources to promptly bring to their attention any pertinent information concerning bombings and attempted bombings. Such information should be promptly reported to the Bureau.

This is a program, which if exploited to its full potential, could well lead to the solution of the bombings. Therefore, it must receive continuous and expeditious attention.

Note: Hand print names legibly; handwriting satisfactory for remainder.

Los Angeles files likewise disclose no information concerning FREDERICK JOHN KASPER and JESSE B. STONER not known to the Bureau and the offices of origin.

It has, of course, been brought to this office's attention in the past few years that literature issued by certain of the above organizations, namely, the Christian Educational Association, the Christian Patriots Crusade, the National Citizens Protective Association, and the National Renaissance Party (most commonly the first mentioned), has been distributed, usually by unknown persons via mail and under circumstances indicating no effort to organize branches in the Los Angeles area.

The literature concerning the National Renaissance Party has been invariably small, poorly done, mimeographed leaflets discovered during the past year inserted between the pages of books in school and public libraries in the Los Angeles vicinity, alluding to no local address or activities but attempting to interest the reader in subscribing to the organization's "Bulletin."

Of possible interest is a news article that appeared in the Los Angeles "Mirror News" dated January 18, 1955, which mentions that the National Renaissance Party had come to the attention of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which had, in a report on "hate groups", stated one JAMES R. WHITE, billed as an "organizer" for the NRP in Los Angeles, had been a guest speaker at a meeting of the NRP in Yorkville, New York, on June 26, 1953; that WHITE had allegedly organized a fully uniformed group "in his city" and had distributed thousands of copies of the NRP's "Bulletin." The article suggested the House Committee had given WHITE "unduly high notice," adding that "whatever activities he may have engaged in for the NRP in the past now are pretty much discontinued," and that in any event WHITE had departed Los Angeles to attend the Hastings School of Law in San Francisco. In connection with this news item, it is interesting that none such mentioned activities on WHITE's part had previously come to this office's attention, and presumably were greatly exaggerated, if not total falsehoods.

The following is submitted for the Bureau's consideration in regard to the organizations mentioned in rebuairtel as existing in the Los Angeles area, along with two others which, file reviews show, fall in the category of "hate" mongers:

CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST CRUSADE, aka
(Bufile 62-43818)

The CNC continues to maintain its mailing headquarters in Glendale, California and is, along with its various "paper" auxiliaries, the media through which GERALD L. K. SMITH, aided by a staff of associates of long standing (Mrs. ELNA SMITH - his wife, his printer, his attorney), maintains the publication of racially biased propaganda and preserves his following through personal appearances at meetings held in Los Angeles and sometimes in the course of tours across the country.

SMITH and his organizations have been the subject of continuous investigation by the Bureau for many years until as recently as last year. He has not been found to advocate that his followers engage in violence of any kind, or that violence be involved in the solution of any of the problems he presents to his audiences and readers.

who has maintained an active interest for years in SMITH (and the CNC) in view of his frequent meetings at the Embassy Auditorium in Los Angeles, stated on October 20, 1958, that SMITH and his associates, including the former [redacted] have never committed themselves to a course of violence. He said that SMITH's organizations are not membership organizations but are only "paper" organizations, and thrive on the sale of literature, almost entirely of SMITH's own production, and the contributions from his audiences at meetings and others who approve the tenor of his literature and accede to his frequent appeals for funds. (His CNC, as a "national political committee" makes regular reports to Congress under the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, listing the names of those who contribute over $100.)

b7D

He stated SMITH's activities are always open and aboveboard, and his character is such that were he to be approached by the authorities he would more than likely turn over the keys to his office, to the embarrassment of his interviewers. It is this openness, coupled with his unique oratorical and organizing abilities, and an excellent sense of discretion in relation to the legality of his movement, that has permitted him to endure as the pre-eminent public crusader of a "white Christian America." His continued success remains dependent on these considerations, and his being involved in any way with the illegal activities of violence, such as the bombings in the South, would be his downfall. In other words, he has too much to lose to involve himself in such activities.

b7D

[redacted] said this conclusion likewise applies to his associates, including [redacted] over whom SMITH exercises personal direction. Moreover, [redacted] is too intelligent a man to have not come to realize with the passing of time that the course most conducive to his own interests (if he ever thought otherwise) is one of avoiding similar involvement. [redacted] added that SMITH reportedly expressed his serious concern that his organization might unjustly be blamed in some way for the recent bombings in the South.

[redacted] Community Relations Committee, Los Angeles Jewish Community Center, Los Angeles, California, who has likewise maintained an active interest for years in SMITH's organizations, in concert with other Jewish investigative organizations throughout the country, stated on October 20, 1958, that SMITH's primary interest is financial and that he is too intelligent to permit himself or his associates to bring about the ruin of his whole "racket" by involvement, direct or indirect, in violence such as the bombings in the South. He said he has not heard and does not believe that a serious possibility exists that SMITH or his associates have any relation to the bombings.

b7C

[redacted] of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office's Anti-Subversive Detail, [redacted] of the Pasadena California Police Department, and [redacted] of the Glendale, California Police Department (on October 22, 1958) were able to furnish no information indicating that the above characterizations of SMITH and his organizations are not true. All the above sources stated that they have received no information indicating that anyone or any organization locally advocates the use of violence in racial matters, or that anyone is suspected of possible involvement in the recent bombings in the South.

"WILLIAMS' INTELLIGENCE SUMMARY"

Los Angeles files disclose ROBERT H. WILLIAMS has been engaged solely in the publication of his literature, and that there is no information that he has advocated violence in the solution of racial problems. He has, moreover, been interviewed by Special Agents on two or three occasions in the past and has always been cooperative.

[redacted] California, who has been reliably cooperative with Agents of this Office in security matters on several occasions, stated on October 23, 1958, that he has been [redacted] ROBERT H. WILLIAMS for some time [redacted] and that as long ago as 1957, WILLIAMS ceased publishing the "Williams' Intelligence Summary" under the name Williams' Publications, Post Office Box 868, Santa Ana, of which he was the sole proprietor. He said that WILLIAMS quit because his literature activities had never been remunerative; that WILLIAMS has since moved to Silverado, California, and is now the owner and manager of the Duplicard Addressing Machine Company, 1010 East Chestnut Street, Santa Ana. He explained that during the past few years WILLIAMS had been working on the side perfecting an invention (the Duplicard Addressing Machine) and that he has recently been able to incorporate and go into business on a full-time basis. He said that WILLIAMS now retains no connections with his past publishing activities; that he never had a membership organization or advocated violence in his writings, and has made no trips outside of California during the past couple years, and could conceivably have had no connection with the bombings in the summer.

[redacted] confirmed the statements that WILLIAMS is not known to have advocated violence in his articles, or to have been more than a publisher of his own writings on communism and subversive influences from an anti-Semitic point of view.

AMERICAN NATIONALIST
(Bufile 105-22921);

KEEP AMERICA COMMITTEE
(Los Angeles file 100-33703)

The American Nationalist (AN), Post Office Box 301, Inglewood, California, is the name under which [redacted]

[redacted] (on an irregular basis) the four-page "The American Nationalist" and miscellaneous anti-Semitic and anti-Negro leaflets, replete with lurid photographs which he mails locally and allegedly to addressees in the southern states. [redacted] and the AN have been the subject of previous investigation by this Office in 1953 and again in 1956. At those times it was learned that [redacted] operates alone and is engaged solely in the sale of his own literature, making frequent appeals for subscriptions to his literature and donations to continue his efforts.

b7C

[redacted] Inglewood, California, stated on October 22, 1958, that [redacted] AN has been investigated by the Postal Inspectors on four or five different occasions, but has never been found to have misused the mails, having never advocated the use of violence in his literature. He said that [redacted] frequently visits the Post Office to deposit batches of his literature in the mails, destined to addressees locally and in the southern states. He added that the AN is not a membership organization, conducts no meetings, and is solely operated by [redacted] for the purpose of selling his literature and seeking donations, through these means "earning" a living for himself and his wife. He added that [redacted] is not the sort to get along with others and he has never sought the association of others in his AN.

b7C

The Keep America Committee (KAC), Box 3094, Terminal Annex, Los Angeles, California, is similarly a name behind which [redacted] Los Angeles, [redacted] literature, usually reprints of other "nationalist" literature. None of the various items that have come to this Office's attention advocates violence, seeks membership or mentions organized activity, but only indicates that the particular items can be ordered in batches at a price from the KAC.

b7C

[redacted] state that [redacted] have been actively interested in [redacted] and have learned that the AN and KAC are not and have never sought to be membership organizations, hold no meetings and are operated solely by [redacted] for the production of literature. They stated that neither is known to have advocated violence or to have been associated with anyone who has. [redacted] added that [redacted] is a woman in her later 50's or early 60's. They stated that it is not conceivable that either [redacted] have any connection with the bombings in the South and that neither has the ability nor the funds to engage in any activities outside the state, except for the mailing of literature.

b7D

[redacted] of the Anti-Subversive Detail of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office; Detective Captain [redacted] of the Pasadena, California, Police Department; Detective Captain [redacted] of the Glendale, California, Police Department, and Detective Lieutenant [redacted] of the Inglewood, California, Police Department (on October 22, 1958), were able to furnish no additional pertinent information concerning [redacted]

GENERAL

All of the above-mentioned sources stated they have received no information indicating anyone or any organization locally advocates the use of violence in racial matters, or that anyone is suspected of involvement in the recent bombings in the South.

Contact with security informants and all other logical informants and sources has been unproductive but has served to alert them to the importance of immediately forwarding information concerning persons or organizations possibly relating to bombings in the South to this Office. Contact with them will be maintained on a continuing basis.

RECOMMENDATIONS

It is recommended that no active investigation be undertaken in connection with the "Williams' Intelligence Summary" in view of its discontinuance almost one year ago, and WILLIAMS' disassociation from his past activities, being presently absorbed in his new business. It is also considered, being "one-man" operations of a nonmembership type engaged in issuing literature, investigations of [redacted] American Nationalist [redacted] Keep America Committee are not warranted and would be ineffective in achieving the Bureau's primary purpose in these investigations; consequently, no active investigation will be conducted of these three organizations, UACB.

b7C

With regard to SMITH's Christian Nationalist Crusade: From investigation conducted in the past (until 1957), the continuing review of literature emanating from the CNC and the continuing attention it receives from local sources, a presumptive pattern has been established indicating that SMITH and his associates are not of such a radical nature as to present a potential for violence, except, of course, insofar as deep-seated, racial ill-feeling is engendered in some readers of his literature. In investigating SMITH and his associates to ascertain whether the above-mentioned presumptive pattern does not apply equally to their activities when outside of California, it would seem necessary to establish a source among SMITH's inner staff which, it is believed, would constitute a grave risk of embarrassment to the Bureau, because it is apparent that the interests of each associate is the interest of all. Other investigative steps, it is believed, could hardly achieve the primary purpose for initiating investigation.

The Bureau is requested to advise whether it desires the risk be undertaken, nevertheless, or whether it is thought a direct approach to SMITH and/or any of his associates, and for that matter [redacted] WILLIAMS [redacted] for any information they may have heard in connection with the southern bombings, is not warranted. SMITH may, in the past, have ridiculed the idea of the FBI investigating him and his organization(s), but it is not recalled that he has been critical of the Director or the FBI.

b7C

This Office will, in addition, review its files to identify certain individuals who may have participated in Klan activities years ago to establish their present activities and to determine if they might properly be considered within the Bureau's program.

[redacted] of the National Renaissance Party.
These letters are as follows:

1. Undated letter from [redacted] thanking him for LeBlanc pamphlets. Letter indicates [redacted] was National Renaissance Party, Georgia [redacted] and that he was distributing pamphlets to his mailing list and also to the local libraries. [redacted] further indicated that he was working on the "STONER" group (apparently referring to J. B. STONER, leader of the Christian Anti-Jewish Party); however, [redacted] indicated unable to make contact with them, nor had he been able to obtain or learn anything about membership of the Christian Anti-Jewish Party. [redacted] indicates that when STONER makes another speech in Chattanooga, Tennessee, he will photograph members identified by their arm band, and will attempt to identify those persons and make contact by that means. [redacted] also indicates that one [redacted] has assured [redacted] of support toward starting a party branch in New Orleans and instructed [redacted] to write to one [redacted] also requests a bulletin on racial segregation when it is printed, and indicates that he forwarded samples of literature distributed by various Southern groups on segregation.

2. Letter of [redacted] dated February 13, 1955, addressed to [redacted] of the National Renaissance Party. In this letter [redacted] identifies himself as the Georgia Party Chairman of the National Renaissance Party - Elite Guard [redacted] states that he has been in contact with [redacted] however, contemplates discontinuing further contact with [redacted] because [redacted] attempted to win [redacted] away from the National Renaissance Party, so that he might join the Christian Anti-Jewish Party. [redacted] according to [redacted] indicated that [redacted] belonged to another political party which has no working agreement with the Arch Leader of the Christian Anti-Jewish Party. therefore, he cannot give him any information. Secondly, [redacted] indicated to [redacted] that he has full knowledge of the National Renaissance Party's official policy, and that it is too weak on the Jewish problem. [redacted] comments that if [redacted] has full knowledge of the National Renaissance Party's basic problem, he must not understand articles in the basic program, as they are as strong as you can get on the Jewish problem. [redacted] stated that [redacted]

On August 26, 1958, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] b2
[redacted] (original source, Atlanta file [redacted], that one b7C
[redacted] had advised him that GERALD SMITH, who resides b7D on the [redacted] of the United States, was actively engaged [redacted] which was to be utilized for the [redacted] and others who were arrested by the Atlanta, Georgia, Police Department, [redacted] of the Atlanta Journal, an Atlanta, Georgia daily newspaper. The [redacted] [redacted] of [redacted] referred to occurred on [redacted] and involved [redacted]
Anti-Jewish statements.

The Atlanta Office of the FBI on October 23, 1958, received an undressed letter in an envelope which letter was captioned "Atlanta Scandal". The contents of this paper purportedly were written by GERALD L. K. SMITH, and states as follows:

"A very disturbing report has come to my desk. Five young patriots in the State of Georgia decided that they had their stomachs full of Jew-created, Jew-slanted news stories concerning what is going on in the world. Two of the worst newspapers in the United States are in the City of Atlanta.
They do not reflect the Southern tradition. It is believed by many keen observers that both of these journals are manipulated by people who do not have the best interests of the South at heart.

"These five young men, representing a body of patriots, decided to picket these newspapers with signs protesting Jewish influence. They were picked up, railroaded, and sentenced to 30 days in jail. I have the names and addresses of the young men, but I am not going to give them to the public because I do not want them to be the victims of increased persecution. It is my understanding that they were released under bond and are appealing their cases. We propose to go into the matter thoroughly and if the situation is what it seems to be, we shall advise our friends to come to their aid, comfort and encouragement of these young men who have only been denied their civil liberties, but have become the victims of Jew-controlled tyranny.

AT 62-1673

"Atlanta is a bad city. It has many bad people in it. The politicians in that city are inclined to be the puppets of the secret Jewish machine. Do not judge the State of Georgia by what goes on in the City of Atlanta. The politicians of Atlanta have always fought the Talmadges and the people who have come to the defense of Southern tradition. Very frequently the Negro politicians of Atlanta are under the direct manipulation of New York Jews as well as Atlanta Jews.

For the information of the Bureau and Indianapolis Office, all pertinent data in Atlanta files was summarized in above report and is located on pages 222 to 277. b7C A check of the Atlanta indices fails to reflect any pertinent information relating to the Nationalist Conservative Party which is not already in possession of the Bureau and Office of Origin. In regard to [redacted] who reportedly is the founder of the Nationalist Conservative Party, the Bureau's and Chicago's attention is directed to Chicago's letter of March 29, 1957, captioned "The American Humane Society, IS-X", Chicago file 105-3907. Enclosed with Chicago's letter was a blank memorandum regarding the American Humane Society, and contents of the memorandum indicate the organization ostensibly had as its purpose a Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Inquiry in 1956 failed to reflect little, if any, activity toward this organization's stated goal; however, it was noted that of a group of individuals carried on the letterhead stationery of this organization identified as Advisory Board Directors, a number had previous fascist group activities or hate type organization activities. Subject:

Robert H. Williams
1321 S. Van Ness
Santa Ana, Calif.

Williams is approximately 61 years of age. He is married and has two children.

For about ten years he was the publisher of the Williams Intelligence Summary and several pamphlets on Jews, Communism, and Zionism.

Williams abandoned his publishing activities in March 1958 and is currently operating the Dupli-Card Addressing Machine Co., 1015 E. Chestnut Street, Santa Ana.

Williams never formed an organization, though he did accept speaking engagements before Service Clubs and veteran's organizations. He worked very closely with all the other individuals active in the "hate field" and exchanged information and literature with them.

This report is classified "Confidential" because it contains information ascribed to [redacted] indicating Bureau coverage and interest in foreign diplomatic establishments, disclosure of which could be prejudicial to the national defense interests.

FRANK L. BRITTON's "The American Nationalist" is the subject of Bufile 105-22921.

ROBERT H. WILLIAMS's "Williams Intelligence Summary" is the subject of Bufile 105-10091.

GERALD L. K. SMITH's "Christian Nationalist Crusade" is the subject of Bufile 62-43818.

Literature of the above persons and organizations contains voluminous material critical of Jews and Israel differing not at all in character and content from what would be expected of persons writing in the anti-Semitic field. Practically all of this material, of course, is favorable from the viewpoint of Arab interests, however only those instances where mention was made of contacts with persons connected with Arab state official establishments or suggestive of actual Arab influence have been included in this report.

In other instances, notably in SMITH's literature, there are the usual references to public sources or quotations from such sources (newspapers, news magazines, letters from Arab propagandists or officials published in newspapers, all the way to articles culled from Jewish publications), editorial comment on current events in the Middle East and revelations of the results of SMITH's interviews with Arab refugees or persons interested in Arab refugee problems - all dealt with in a manner to serve SMITH's ends (in retaining his following) as well as, if not more so than, Arab interests. Where the one begins and the other ends cannot be determined. Consequently, it has been considered that the reporting of voluminous anti-Israel (necessarily pro-Arab) articles would serve no valuable purpose at this time.

It would not be surprising were it learned that DAVID BURK's articles in the "New York Daily News" are merely part of a program influenced by the Anti-Defamation League itself, which has been in a running feud with SMITH and others - not always to its own advantage - for years; the one side seeking to involve SMITH and the others with the authorities, and the others on their part demanding investigation by the House Committee on Un-American Activities of the ADL as a subversive organization dedicated to serving Israeli interests and itself acting in violation of the Foreign Agents Registration Act and the Corrupt Practices Act. At any rate, BURK's articles are filled with little fact and considerable hint, as exemplified in this report, (at least as far as concerns SMITH, BRITTON and WILLIAMS), and apparently have been prompted by his concern to put the "nearly 90 dynamite blasts (that) have echoed around the country in the last two years, aimed mainly at Jews, Negroes and sincere Christians who have publicly backed these groups)" into a coordinated pattern. It is known that the ADL is very much interested in bills to be presented to Congress, making bombings of churches, synagogues, schools, etc., violations of federal law.

It is not recommended that a Registration Act investigation be conducted concerning WILLIAMS because he has already ceased the publishing field (since 1957).

Because BRITTON has publicly staunchly denied the ADL accusation of having been paid $500.00 for reprinting an article

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

WJM:bcl

allegedly prepared by an Arab propagandist, it is not recommended that a Registration Act investigation be conducted at this time pending New York's contact with the ADL for full particulars.

Because so much is known concerning SMITH's contacts with Arab officials, much based on his own admissions, but so little concerning a possible arrangement that could be construed as an agreement or contract such as is required in Registration Act violations, and because his literature is so written as to discount the possibility of indicating such an arrangement were there one, it is not recommended that a Registration Act investigation be conducted concerning him.

REQUEST TO THE BUREAU:

b7C

The Bureau is requested to consider the advisability of direct interview with GERALD L. K. SMITH or other of his associates, [redacted] and ROBERT H. WILLIAMS should information supposedly obtainable from ADL in New York City leave insufficient basis for conducting a Registration Act investigation.

DETAILS:

This investigation is based upon a series of five articles entitled "Peddling Hate in America: Egypt's NASSER" by DAVID BURK which appeared in the "New York Daily News" during January 20-24, 1959. ✓

In the first article of the series, BURK stated (in part), referring to the "nearly 90 dynamite blasts (that) have echoed around the country in the last two years aimed mainly at Jews, Negroes and sincere Christian citizens who have publicly backed these groups," that: "practically every operation fitted into a national pattern which, authorities believe, was etched by a loose-linked network of American neo-fascist groups peppered around the country. This hate corps...today has emerged as a fifth column acting in behalf of President GAMAL ABDEL NASSER of the so-called United Arab Republic and his dreams of empire...The race groups here, coordinated rather than organized and with a total following throughout the country that officials estimate at not more than a few thousand, are zealously following NASSER's line. But what, you may ask, could NASSER possibly want with a fifth column in the United States? The answer, as officials at the Department of Justice explained it to me, is transparently simple....The NASSER-dominated segment of the Arab world, fed on an information diet prescribed by our native racists, frankly regards not only American Jewry but the U. S. Administration, too, as the fountainhead of Israel's moral and financial help. Looked at in this light, NASSER must knock out Israel's backers in the U. S. before he can keep his pledge to his followers to knock out Israel itself. The U. S. thus becomes a legitimate 'second front.' NASSER himself, back in the early 50s when he still was the unassuming Col. NASSER, Egyptian prime minister under fatherly Gen. MOHAMMED NAGUIB, whom he later liquidated as subtly as any trained Kremlinite, once told me bitterly in Cairo. 'America is in the hands of the Zionists. The Jews control the press and government. The Arab voice is never heard. How can we fight back?' For at least four years now he has been fighting back, using Egyptian military intelligence officers and men who can hide behind diplomatic immunity as the contact men, and a group of individuals and periodicals as his mouthpieces. The periodicals, all neatly arranged in alphabetical order on the Attorney General's List of Subversive Publications, rarely go to press without some item of NASSER's propaganda, and their own outpourings turn up in Arab press and broadcasts. The basic hope is that, by breeding hatred and suspicion of the Jews, outraged public opinion might force Congress to stop official support for Israel. With a little additional shove, Congress might even be persuaded to legislate against support for Israel from Jewish organizations....The Atlanta Temple bombing, however, triggered a series of shocks.... thanks to a story carried exclusively in THE NEWS, the link between the Arabs and the hate-mongers held responsible for the blast suddenly emerged....At the New York information office maintained by the Arab League, but largely dominated by NASSER, at the UAR delegation to the United Nations and at the UAR embassy in Washington, a firm front was maintained against 'these undesirable elements.' The order had gone out: 'Deny, deny, deny.' The hate-mongers I sought out have been less discreet....Even the Egyptians a apt to break down under stress. During a long talk one night in Washington with an official of the UAR embassy, I was repeatedly assured that not only would no one from his government have dealings with 'these scum,' they would kick them out bodily if they dared to cross the embassy threshold. But finally he raised his hands shoulder high in extreme exasperation and snarled: 'What can we do if these people want to help tell our story? Is that our fault? You know as well as I do that the Jews control your so-called free press here. Only the Zionists voices are heard.' He might have been quoting straight from an American hate sheet, or from Cairo Radio."

In the second article of the series BURK stated (in part) that after the Atlanta, Georgia temple bombing on October 12, 1958, Cairo Radio, "which is under the personal supervision of...NASSER," announced that: "It is reported from the United States that unknown persons have destroyed a synagogue in the city of Atlanta. It is further reported that publications throughout the Southern states are carrying hostile articles against the Jewish community." Pointing out that such publications could only have been "those put out by America's neo-fascist groups whose activities identify them daily more closely as a NASSER fifth column," BURK then mentioned that "such hate sheets as...and 'The Cross and Flag' put out in Los Angeles by GERALD L. K. SMITH, print a routine combination of pro-NASSER and anti-Jewish propaganda...(which) always flood into the areas afflicted by racial incidents and violence." Further on the article states: "In their anxiety to be all-embracing, to reach the hearthstones of American families of different tastes and viewpoints, the raciest periodicals adopt a variety of fronts. From California, GERALD L. K. SMITH offers the Christian approach... ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, who calls himself 'major' although the Army stripped him of the rank in 1950, pretended he was in U. S. intelligence during World War II for the benefit of those who like their hate diet served from the top-secret drawer. The House Committee on Un-American Activities, in a report on 'Neo-Fascist and Hate Groups' in December, 1954, called the monthly Intelligence Summary WILLIAMS put out from Santa Ana, Calif., 'a deception'. (WILLIAMS recently went out of the publishing business, probably temporary.) Far from being a high-powered innercircle man, the committee said, 'WILLIAMS' intelligence duty comprised less than a year as an administrative officer for the intelligence section of a bomber wing.' Thus, adds the report, 'he would have received no intelligence information dealing with the Communist conspiracy.' FRANK L. BRITTON, a disciple of GERALD L. K. SMITH, thumps the ultra nationalist, defend-America tub from California."

In the third article of the series, BURK stated (in part): "Soon after the Atlanta Temple bombing, Ambassador KAMIL ABDEL RAHIM, suave, ambitious head of the Arab Information Office, was recalled to Cairo 'for consultations.' Reliable reports say RAHIM, who inspired and founded Arab Information Office in early 1955, has been sacked....Back in the early '50's, when RAHIM was posted to Washington as Egyptian ambassador, he and his senior aids were flattered by the attentions they received from some of the racist fanatics. An identity of viewpoint was found on several issues, especially regarding the creation of the State of Israel and its support by Jews in the U.S....ROBERT WILLIAMS, who pretends to readers of his Intelligence Summary that he got the whole inside dope on the Communist conspiracy as an intelligence officer in World War II, was in touch with OMAR HALIQ of the Saudi UN delegation, offering pamphlets and mailing lists. Subscriptions were taken to such hate sheets as GERALD L. K. SMITH's The Cross and the Flag....RAHIM saw the potential in all these individuals and their outlets. Then, when he learned that the Arab Information Office officially sponsored by all the Arab League states, would have to register with the Justice Department as the agent of a foreign power, RAHIM quickly had himself transferred to the Yemen delegation to the UN to preserve his diplomatic immunity. The Foreign Agents Registration Act, 1938, As Amended, is specific. Any person or organization engaging in propaganda in behalf of a foreign power must send the Justice Department a half-yearly report listing its staff, activities, income and expenses. The Arab Information Office, which now has branches in Washington, Chicago, San Francisco and Ottawa, opened its New York headquarters in March, 1955." After hinting the possible untrustworthy returns by the Arab Information Centers to the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the United States Department of Justice, BURK added: "But the propaganda field is one in which money moves in mysterious ways. It is not even probable that the Arab Information Office is cooking its books. The penalties for any breach of the law are severe. But there is nothing to prevent the Egyptian embassy or

UN delegation, or those of the other Arab states involved, from footing bills in behalf of the AIO. Moving behind their shield of diplomatic immunity their finances are not controlled in any way by the U. S. authorities. Whatever monies pass to the American racist groups would certainly be handed over in cash. Ever here there is no difficulty in avoiding official scrutiny. In any free money market, like Lebanon or Switzerland, both handily on the route from Cairo to New York, dollars can be bought in any quantity without the transaction being recorded. Since diplomatic bags are sacrosanct, there is no way of telling how much cash, if any, is brought here in this way. Except for GERALD L. K. SMITH, none of the race groups has any special obligation under law to report either the amount of its income or its source. SMITH is in a separate category because his Christian National Crusade takes an active, if never welcome, part in political campaigns and elections. This obliges him to report his expenses and income to the Clerk of the House of Representatives under the Corrupt Practices Act. SMITH, whose Cross and the Flag carries even more than the usual quota of Arab propaganda, picks his favorite candidates in every Congressional and Presidential election and announces that his 'National Political Committee' will throw the full weight of its support behind the chosen ones....One of the penalties of denouncing SMITH and his fellow-racists in this manner, as their publications show, is that the denouncer will in turn be denounced--as a pawn of the Jews, a hireling of the Jews, or very often, however fantastically, simply as a Jew." Further, suggesting that SMITH's reports to Congress under the Corrupt Practices Act as a "national political committee" list contributors who "seem to exist only on paper" BURK stated: "SMITH, on his own printed admissions, is virtually in constant contact with Egyptian officials and diplomats. In last January's issue of The Cross and the Flag, he boldly identifies one of his friends in an article titled: 'A Guest From Egypt.' On a visit to Washington, writes SMITH, 'I was called upon by a brilliant young man who is a citizen of Egypt. His name is IBRAHIM BAGHDADY. He is a journalist and a radio commentator.' BAGHDADY, however, is not a journalist and radio commentator. He is a major in army intelligence, one of the platoon of intelligence agents NASSER spikes his foreign missions with. There is little point in listing them all. But intelligence officers sent to the U. S. on short visits, generally in the role of 'diplomatic couriers, are worthy of mention. So also is the fact that the Egyptian State Information Department in Cairo, publisher of most of the tracts distributed and reprinted by America's racists, is a branch of NASSER's security and intelligence network. Lt. Col ADBEL KHADR HATTEM, who took over the department during my years in Cairo and who now is deputy minister for presidential affairs, had previously been in command of a group of agents whose function was to snoop on foreign correspondents, tap their telephones and steam open their mail. He is in charge of all press and radio activities. The NASSER agents who come here in sheep's clothing are naturally as free as any other visitor to travel around the U. S. and meet whom they please. That is one of the advantages of working in a free country, a fact Egyptians, especially, would appreciate."

In the fourth and fifth articles of the series, there appeared no other information implicating SMITH with Arab propaganda except probably the concluding statement in the fifth article that "the jigsaw pieces had clicked into place," that various persons including "SMITH" were tied into "a network of subversive hate. Each group feeding on the others like jungle animals on a diet of shady finance, propaganda gimmicks, and methods and ideas that reek of Red Moscow and Nazi Berlin." (In this passage "SMITH" could equally apply to GERALD L. K. SMITH and one CHARLES SMITH of the "New York Racist Forum" mentioned in the second article.)

I. GERALD L. K. SMITH;
CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST CRUSADE

[redacted] furnished information on January 31, 1957 that the Christian Nationalist Crusade (CNC) was organized in St. Louis, Missouri in 1947, and moved its headquarters to Glendale, California in 1953, where it continues to be located; that from the parent CNC, subsidiary organizations, including the Christian Nationalist Party (of America), have developed; that these organizations all reflect in their literature the imprint of their chief organizer and director, GERALD L. K. SMITH, whose basic argument has been that this nation, traditionally Christian, and racially segregated, is threatened by anti-Christian and racially "mongrelizing" forces such as communism and internationalism, all dominantly motivated by international Jewry which controls this country financially and politically; and that these organizations are not membership organizations, but represent followers who contribute to them or subscribe to their literature. Although GERALD L. K. SMITH and his close associates are not known to have appealed to illegal action, the tenor of their statements and program is intensely anti-Semitic, as indirectly indicated by the slogan of the Christian Nationalist Party, announced in 1950, which was: "One Faith - One Race - One Nation."

Issues of "The Cross and the Flag" (TCTF) dated November, 1954 and November, 1958, which identify that publication as the official monthly organ of the CNC, set forth on page 26 the same statement showing ownership, management and circulation of TCTF as required by law. A. GERALD L. K. SMITH;
ELNA M. SMITH

A United Press "Thumbnail Biography" of GERALD L. K. SMITH printed in the "Huntington Park Signal", November 15, 1948, states: "GERALD L. K. SMITH went back to Viroqua, Wisc., Aug. 18, 1946, as a 'favorite son.' An estimated 24,000 persons heard 'the boy orator' at his oratorical best in a Viroqua centennial address he was chosen especially to deliver. H. L. MENCKEN said of SMITH in the Baltimore Sun in 1936 that he was the 'gustiest and goriest, the loudest and lustiest, the deadliest and damndest orator ever heard on this or any other earth.' As a supporter of the late Sen. HUEY P. LONG--he was with LONG when the Louisiana 'Kingfish' was shot--and later as the leader of numerous anti-New Deal, anti-Communist organizations, SMITH claimed to have spoken to more human beings in person than any living American. SMITH was born at Viroqua Feb. 27, 1898. Before he moved to Shreveport, La., in 1929 to become pastor of the Kingshighway Christian Church, SMITH completed his high school education in three Wisconsin schools. He attended Valparaiso and Butler Universities in Indiana, but returned to his native Wisconsin to serve several small churches as a young, unmarried preacher. SMITH also preached in several small churches in Illinois. But it was in Louisiana that he found himself. SMITH joined hands with LONG in 1933. He said he did it because he believed the Louisiana dictator was the most effective weapon against the late FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT. From those days right on through experiences with Father COUGHLIN and Dr. TOWNSEND, and into the troubles he found in organizations of his own, SMITH stood on the Bible, wrapped himself in the flag--and orated. SMITH started his own organization in 1938 under the name of the 'Committee of One Million.' He didn't stop at the first million, however, but went on to recruit an estimated 3,000,000 followers. During his many years before the public, demonstrations were often rowdy. SMITH's most widely-publicized battles came when he was an 'America First' speaker. In those bitter days, he was often kicked out, chased off, and otherwise hampered in his oratory. SMITH married Miss ELNA SORENSON in 1918. One son, GERALD L. K. SMITH, JR., was wounded four times in World War II."

She is an associate editor of the 'Washington Letter' and is on the editorial staff of TCTF. She has lived and traveled with Mr. and Mrs. SMITH for six years. No person in the organization is more familiar with all phases of detail having to do with the Crusade than Miss LEGANT. She knows hundreds of the Nationalist leaders personally and has met them in their own home towns. She has typed 90% of Mr. SMITH's personal correspondence through the years. Although a highly competent secretary and stenographer, her relationship to the movement

C. OPAL M. TANNER (WHITE)

TCTF dated October, 1948, contains a photograph of OPAL TANNER on page 23, beneath which she is identified as: "Member of the editorial staff of TCTF, former executive secretary of United Farmers of America. Until his death, the right-hand helper of the late and much respected CARL H. MOTE, editor of 'America Preferred.'" Beside this photograph, as beside those of other "leading nationalists" who spoke at the 1948 Christian Nationalist Convention, Miss TANNER is quoted as having stated: "It is with deep feeling that I recall having attended the first Nationalist Convention in 1944 not only as a delegate but as the Secretary of the Chairman of that Convention, Mr. CARL H. MOTE. Mr. MOTE realized that both 'old' political parties were completely controlled by the same gang of Internationalists. I feel confident in saying that if Mr. MOTE were present as a delegate to this Christian Nationalist Convention he would bring to his fellow delegates the same challenge that he brought to the America First Convention in 1944 when he said: 'Fellow Americans, the times are rotten ripe for change. The times are overripe for a new political party which will say what it means and mean what it says. Let us go forth to battle--to battle for our common country and for the God of our Fathers.'"

TCTF dated November, 1949, contains a photograph of OPAL M. TANNER on page 21, beneath which it is stated that she: "presented the address in the dedication of the Mote Memorial Building. This building is the headquarters of the Christian Nationalist Crusade, located at 1533 South Grand Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri. Miss TANNER was the executive secretary of the late CARL H. MOTE, eminent writer, attorney and business executive. In his will he remembered Miss TANNER in a modest way, and without a suggestion on the part of any individual, she offered to dedicate this legacy to the purchase of a building to be used for the national headquarters of the Christian Nationalist Crusade. The building is the property of Miss TANNER, but it has been made available by lease to the Crusade as long as it is

II. FRANK LOLLAR BRITTON;
THE AMERICAN NATIONALIST

The "California Jewish Voice" newspaper, a weekly newspaper published in Los Angeles, California, which reports mainly information of interest to the Jewish community in the Los Angeles area, contains an article on page 5 of its issue dated May 29, 1953, entitled "A Hate-Pamphleteer Dedicates His Commodity to Rival Dispensers." This article states, in part:

"FRANK BRITTON of Hawthorne, California, is a young hero-worshipper studying to become a hero. BRITTON's current idols are of a peculiar stipe for an American not quite 33 years old, a veteran of World War II and a former student at the University of Southern California. They include:

"The magnificent GERALD L. K. SMITH, funder and leader of the Christian Nationalist Movement

"BRITTON's career as a professional anti-Semite began in 1950 while he was still a student at the University of Southern California. There he distributed anti-Semitic leaflets which won high praise from WESLEY SWIFT, of Ku Klux Klan fame, who for a while made BRITTON his protege.

"After publication of the two Treason pamphlets ("Atom Treason" and "Hollywood Treason"), BRITTON came up with a new anti-Semitic 'expose,' a 96-page booklet, Behind Communism, which he published in the summer of 1952. This has been sold around the country by the bigoted faithful for a dollar a copy. It, too, stresses, the Jewish-Zionist-Communist equation.

"An ambitious, striving man, BRITTON decided to form his own 'patriotic' movement in September 1952 by sending out invitations for a meeting of his 'great new organization' aimed at combatting the 'Jew Marxist' program of world conquest. The invitation appeared on the reverse side of a 'Buy Gentile' flyer which he had been distributing in the Los Angeles area.

"The meeting was a dud. About 200 people appeared at the Embassy Hall to hear BRITTON charge that the nation's ills were attributable to 'immigrant Jew-Communists,' that 'Jew agitators' were exploiting the American Negro. Very little money was collected and the organization -- called The New Confederates -- died in its infancy. ✓

LA 105-6400

"BRITTON has other irons in the fire. One of them is his 'fortnightly' publication, The American Nationalist, started in December 1952. Its content is similar to that of many other anti-Semitic publications. . . .

"But BRITTON's printed material has one distinction. Unlike most professional bigots, BRITTON has the advantage of a college education. He may even have studied journalism. His products are technically better, more polished than most. He makes judicious use of color, of two-page layouts, for maximum reader appeal. His Treason pamphlets--vicious and full of distortions--are readable and physically attractive. . . ."

The "American Nationalist" (AN) consistently identifies itself as a four-page publication of The American Nationalist, Post Office Box 301, Inglewood, California, edited by FRANK LOLLAR BRITTON.

ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, a former United States Army Intelligence Officer, of Santa Ana, California, had been publisher of the "Williams Intelligence Summary" since sometime after World subversive influences on the national and international levels from an anti-Semitic point of view. He ceased publication of the "Williams Intelligence Summary" in approximately late 1957.

WILLIAMS quit because his literature activities had never been remunerative; that WILLIAMS has since moved to Silverado, Cali-

ALLEGED ARAB CONTACTS

I. GERALD L. K. SMITH

The book entitled "Cross-Currents" by ARNOLD FORSTER and BENJAMIN R. EPSTEIN, copyrighted 1956 by "The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith," published by Doubleday & Company, Inc., Garden City, New York, which states in the authors' acknowledgment that "Only after reading this book from cover to cover can one truly understand the debt its authors owe to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. The work is based upon the files of an agency composed of many men and women whose actual memoranda make up page after page of this document. . . .," and which contains a two-page forward by HENRY EDWARD SCHULTZ, National Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, contains various passages pertinent to the subject of this investigation, which are as follows:

"November 20, 1954

"AF to BRE (ARNOLD FORSTER to BENJAMIN R. EPSTEIN):

"KAMIL ABDUL RAHIM, Egypt's former ambassador to the United States, returned to this country this morning, this time to assume the duties of executive director of the long-planned Arab League propaganda office in the United States.

"November 22, 1954

"Research to AF:

"RAHIM made some interesting, off-the-record comments about American Jews to friends the day he arrived. If the Arabs in the United States were to minimize their anti-Semitic agitation,

~~SECRET~~

WJM:bcl

~~SECRET~~

said RAHIM, many American Jews might then lose interest in Zionism and Israel. But, added RAHIM, this was not the solution; there is a better answer. Most Americans do not distinguish between Zionists and Jews. This, he added, is 'something we have to exploit carefully.' Understanding American public opinion as well as he does, RAHIM concluded, it won't be very difficult--although delicate.

'November 23, 1954

'Library to BRE:

"One of the professional agitators with whom the newly arrived RAHIM has been in touch, at least through intermediaries, is GERALD SMITH.

"In 1952, SMITH sent out a number of letters to prominent Arabs concerning various aspects of the 'Jewish problem.' Among those to whom he wrote was KAMIL ABDUL RAHIM, ambassador from Egypt at the time, and when RAHIM's representative, Colonel MOHAMMED ABDEL HALIM KHALIFA, attended the 1952 Republican Convention in Chicago, he had an hour's conversation with the Christian Nationalist leader.

"In his report to RAHIM, KHALIFA indicated that he had been very favorably impressed by SMITH, whom he characterized as one of the principal fighters against Zionism and Jewish influence in the United States. Always the salesman, SMITH boasted to KHALIFA of the 'wonderful cooperation' he had been receiving from various representatives of Syrian-Lebanese American clubs. Believe it or not, SMITH promised KHALIFA that he would exert great influence to see that the platforms of both major parties pay respect to the national aspirations of the Arab states. For a discredited rabble-rouser like SMITH to palm off successfully such a patently phony promise, KHALIFA must be a man who is quite ignorant of the American scene.

"But apparently SMITH has a way with the Arabs. Back in January 1953, Dr. AHMED GALAL ABDELRAZEK, Egypt's permanent representative to the United Nations, ordered SMITH's pamphlets for his legation and found The Cross and the Flag so stimulating that he purchased a hundred subscriptions and expressed an interest in personally meeting its editor, DON LOHBECK.

"It is interesting, also, to note that the Saudi Arabian delegation, subscribing to ten copies of The Cross and the Flag at a subscription rate of $2.00 each, sent SMITH a $120 check for the purchase; the $100 gratuity obviously reflected Saudi Arabian gratitude.

SMITH must really have put his best foot forward in Arab circles. Our files also show that back in October 1951 he was the subject of extended comment during a meeting at the home of MAHMOUD FAWZY BEY, permanent Egyptian representative to the United Nations. Six very top official representatives from the Arab world attended, including the Iraqi, Syrian, and Saudi Arabian representatives to the UN, and CHARLES MALIK, Lebanese ambassador. The Iraqi delegate, AWNI KHALIDY, was holding forth. Here is the substance of his remarks:

"My brothers, my activities last week were concentrated mainly on reports from Iraqi students in American universities. I have given them the task of carrying on an intensive agitation against the gangsters of Tel Aviv. I received eighteen letters from my correspondents in which they reported distributing a considerable number of pamphlets and prospectuses in favor of the Arab cause at universities in Michigan, Massachusetts, California, Washington and at Syracuse and Philadelphia. In these universities my correspondents work quietly and secretly so that Jewish students do not learn about their activities or report about them to their espionage agencies. I sent my correspondents 1800 copies of a pamphlet which I received from my very good friend GERALD SMITH. The sum of it was that the cause of the Arabs is our cause; that we must try to understand it; that we must try to fight for it and learn about it day and night; that we should understand that the cause that the Arab world defends is real anti-communist democracy, and that the Jews are the inventors of communism and are its largest supporters; that we must study the Arab world and understand it; that the Arab world is a world founded by honest people, sincere, frank, and cherishing democracy. I believe that such a pamphlet will touch the hearts of young Americans. Last week I also succeeded in obtaining from my government an appropriation of $2000 which I will spend exclusively to finance our friends organizing a number of meetings. . .

"An Arab League plan, nursed for five years, to organize a major, centrally directed, opinion-molding apparatus in the United States, becomes a reality with the opening by the League of its propaganda center at 445 Park Avenue in New York City.

"According to the current plan, this will be the main coordinating point for nationwide dissemination of pro-Arab, anti-Israel, and anti-Semitic propaganda; and here various activities will originate to rouse public feeling against Zionist and the 'all-pervading Jewish influence' on American opinion.

"To attain these ends, representatives of the Arab Center will seek the aid of the nation's well-known professional anti-Semites, such as GERALD L. K. SMITH, . . . ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, FRANK BRITTON, . . . and others.

"Dr. OMAR HALIQ, Arab League representative in New York, in a comprehensive report submitted last August to his superiors in the Middle East, outlined the suggestions and offers of assistance he has already received from . . . BRITTON and WILLIAMS. On the question of how and under what circumstances the Arab Center could proceed to work with these people without provoking accusations of anti-Semitism, HALIQ strongly advised 'steady' contact, carried out in secrecy, so as not to hinder or 'deeply impair' the work of the new Center.

"Outlining the cooperation the new Arab office could expect from these men, HALIQ said his conclusions were based upon talks he himself had with them; . . . with SMITH . . . some time later. (after last July).

"HALIQ suggested in his report that to rule these men out of the Arab propaganda effort, as recommended by friends in the American Friends of the Middle East, would be unrealistic, because the Arab Center's mission with regard to Jews is identical with that of the anti-Semites." (Pp. 328-331.)

"Our library has just dropped on this desk the current issue of The Cross and the Flag containing a malicious piece entitled: 'The New Crucifixion in Palestine.' SMITH prefaces his very detailed story with an admission that it is actually based on a memorandum which came to him 'from Jerusalem.' Our files, however, indicate that SMITH's admission is somewhat of an understatement. This is what we mean:

"Some months ago, SMITH met with EZZAT TANNOUS in Washington about the possibility of publishing TANNOUS' propaganda material in his magazine for a fee. The cost would be on a 'per line' basis as though it were advertising matter. TANNOUS agreed; but since the cost was high, $10 a line, he has been careful about the quantity forwarded to SMITH. By TANNOUS' own admission, there is only one story in the current issue of The Cross and the Flag submitted by him.

"In all of SMITH's distortions about alleged desecration of Christian holy places he finds no room to report the appreciation expressed by leaders of the Christian communities to the government of Israel for having safeguarded their property and for making prompt repairs to damage which occurred during the course of fighting. Such statements are available by the Latin Patriarch in Jerusalem, the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate and the Greek consul general in Jerusalem, the Greek Catholic archbishops of Galilee, the special delegate of the Lutheran World Federation, and many others.

"And, of course, SMITH has maintained a very careful silence about the failure of the Arabs to show the same consideration for Jewish religious property in the Old City of Jerusalem. Twenty-seven synagogues were razed to the ground. The historic cemetery on the Mount of Olives where Jews had been laid to rest for generations was sacrilegiously plowed up and the headstones reduced to dust.

"When we first learned of the GERALD SMITH-EZZAT TANNOUS arrangement, we asked our Library to run through recent issues of The Cross and the Flag and mark off the pro-Arab material. Of course we do not know whether the following two items are the result of the SMITH-TANNOUS arrangement, but their substance fascinates us:

"In the August 1954 issue we find the following:

"We (GERALD SMITH) were received by the Ambassador from Egypt and his staff. They are the ones who represent the new government of Egypt in the United Nations. There are Jews in Egypt, but the Jews are not running Egypt. It is the intention of the internationalist clique, directed by Jewish and British politicians, to starve Egypt out by denying her the proper world trade facilities. The trick is to force her to trade with Russia, if possible, so that propaganda can be put out in the U.S. that Egypt is pro-Russian. Then the American people will be taught by the Jews to hate Egypt thus exploiting the American antipathy for Communism. . . . Egypt refuses to recognize the Jewish Palestine Government on the grounds that it is an invasion. The Ambassador, whose name is ABDEL HAMEID GHALEB, is a Moslem. . .

"In his June 1953 issue, SMITH's 'Letter No. 6,' addressed 'Dearest Mother,' reads in part as follows:

"One of the most outspoken delegations concerning the world situation is the delegation representing Lebanon, which is one of the Arab states. We interviewed this delegation and confirmed many important and sensational facts which we already knew. Jew-Zionists captured Palestine with the help of England and the United States, driving a million Arabs out of their homes and their places of business to suffer and die in the desert. Many of these people were refined and cultured people living in lovely homes. The Jews not only came in and stole their homes and their farms, but they froze the bank accounts, looted their safety deposit boxes, stole their cattle, swine and orange groves, using the prestige and power of the United States and Western governments to support their lootings. . . .

"If SMITH's allegations seem vaguely familiar to you, there is good reason for it. You have read these statements many times before in Arab propaganda, the difference being that for the most part Arab literature uses less blunt language than SMITH. But I suppose SMITH feels impelled to rewrite all his source material; he has earned the right to consider his style imitable, after all the years he has spent on it." (Pp. 351-353).

"January 31, 1955

"Library to Research

"An examination of recent issues of SMITH's The Cross and the Flag against propaganda emanating from the Arab Middle East shows that he has echoed a very large part of it, viz., editorials the 'Israeli Invasion of Palestine' combined with pleas for Arab refugees and charges of church desecration by Jews; articles accusing Israel of peddling opium; stores accusing the Jews of using the United Nations to create war upon the Arabs; items claiming that the Jews want peace with the Kremlin but war with the Arabs; editorials in behalf of the Arabs and endorsing such booklets as The Palestine Refugees, etc., etc.

"Most of these items in SMITH's magazine appeared previously in substantially the same form in Arab literature, radio broadcasts, or official releases. Those that SMITH thought of first appeared later in Arab propaganda." (P. 355).

"The answer as to why there is such a deadly parallel between the propaganda of official Arab representatives in the United States and local American anti-Semites lies in the close behind-the-scenes cooperation between the two groups. The fact of such cooperation is absolutely documented by such letters as the one Dr. TANNOUS wrote from New York to a colleague three days ago.

Indicating with apparent regret that he will have to register in the United States as a foreign agent, TANNOUS goes on to describe 'the pro-Arab Americans' with whom he will have to deal on the domestic scene:

"These Americans can be divided into two categories. The first consist of decent and honest Americans who do not know enough about the Jewish plot in Palestine and who could be well influenced. They are not aggressive but honest. They will not help us in any 'big way,' but their influence on the US public opinion is steady and important. They include Church people, some relief organizations, and others. The second category consists of what the Jews call anti-Semites. I have seen some of them and although I cannot say the same thing of all of them, there are some who can do a lot of things to our cause. I have met people like GERALD SMITH, a strong anti-Zionist with a tremendous following (who helped us in his publications by some articles we have sent him), Our contacts with them have been careful to avoid accusations by strong Jewish organizations, like the Anti-Defamation League (which is called here the Gestapo of the Jews). But we remain always on our defensive to prevent wrong interpretations of our actions." (P. 356).

"A Guest From Egypt: When I was in Washington, D. C., recently I was called on by a brilliant young man, 33 years of age, who is a citizen of Egypt. He is a journalist and a radio commentator. His name is Ibrahim Baghdady. Mr. Baghdady insists that Egypt is not only not Communist, but Egypt is anti-Communist. He told me that the very day they were called on by a representative of the Russian Government agreeing to furnish wheat and other materials to Egypt, the Government of Nasser sentenced numerous high officials in the Communist Party to long prison terms. Mr. Baghdady insists that the Arab world is afraid of one monster; namely, Jewish aggression, Israeli invasion, Jewish imperial control. They are conscious of the hazards of Communism and they hope and pray that the United States will give Egypt the kind of cooperation and support which will prevent her from being pushed into the arms of Soviet Russia. Mr. Baghdady says, however, that if the United States continues to tie up Egyptian money and continues to refuse to deliver wheat and foodstuffs to Egypt and continues to arm and furnish money to Israel, which will be used eventually to invade Egypt, Egypt then will be forced to turn wherever she can turn and regardless of the risk involved for allies necessary to fight off the threatened invader. . . ."

(C) "Opinion from Egypt: I conferred in Washington with a prominent citizen of Egypt. He is an editor and radio commentator. He insists that there is no Communism in Egypt with the legal approval of the government. Notorious Communists were sentenced to prison at the very time that Egypt was visited by Russian personalities. My informer insists that the Arabs fear more than anything else the aggressive designs of the Zionist Jews. They know that Jews are coming out of Russia and Poland at the rate of 7,000 per week. They know that Israel is expecting to bring in between two and three million more Jews within the next few years. They know that in order to handle these new Jews, the Zionists will need more territory, and they are hoping to get this territory by invading Egypt and Jordan and Syria. The Arabs are in a life and death battle to save their territory from Jewish invasion. . . ."

"The current issue of Frank Britton's monthly newsletter, 'The American Nationalist', includes this very significant item: 'If you read Arabic you will be interested to learn that an Arabic translation of our book, "Behind Communism", is now available from the Farajalla Press, Box 1012, Beirut, Lebanon.'

"It means that for the second time, at least, this young professional anti-Jewish agitator has worked a deal for himself with the Arabs. The November 1953 issue of his slick-sheet publication featured a piece on the Kibya incident, purporting to show how 'the parasitic state of Israel added another murderous chapter to its already blood-spattered record....' "The Arabs cannot wriggle out of this one. A quick perusal of the Britton newsletter reveals that it is one of the worst anti-Semitic rags in the United States. On a solid basis of co-operation with most of the older professional Jew-baiters, Britton conceals nothing. . . .

"Britton apparently has still other deals pending with the Arabs at this very moment. Earlier this month he was invited on behalf of Abdul Khalek Hassouna, secretary general of the Arab League, to come East as a guest of the Arab League, all expenses covered, for a private conference. In extending the invitation it was explained to Britton that no final commitments could be made to him via mail pending the arrival of the new director of the Arab League propaganda office (Kamil Abdul Rahim) from the Middle East.

"October 29, 1954

"Now we understand why Frank Britton is preoccupied with rewriting for his magazine much of the Arab propaganda coming out of the Middle East. His stories include charges that Arabs suffer second-class citizenship in Israel; that Israel has been blackmailing Germany with demands for reparations; that all Jews give their first loyalty to Israel; that Jews are mistreating Arab refugees; that Israel's immigration laws are harsher than the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act; that Israel pursues an anti-Gentile policy more ruthless than Nazi Germany's Nuremberg laws; that Israel is an aggressor nation, a perpetrator of atrocities, a deadbeat on its obligations to Arab refugees, etc., etc. . . ." "FRANK L. BRITTON

"Unlike legitimate publishers who pay for editorial content, the hate press often works in reverse, collecting for its propaganda. So it is with Frank L. Britton (see: 'Facts', Mar. 1953), the 33 year-old publisher of a slick, four-page, anti-Semitic fortnightly called The American Nationalist.

"In his Nov. 23, 1953 issue Britton, who operates out of Inglewood, Calif., featured a slanted, inflammatory piece on the Kibya incident to show how 'the parasitic state of Israel added another chapter to its already blood-spattered record . . .'. "Rachad plans more such 'publishing deals' with Britton in the future."

"The American Nationalist", volume 3, number 39, dated November, 1955, contains an article on page 2, entitled, "Editor's Report", which states in part:

"Our attention was recently drawn to a smear article which appeared in Georgia's left-wing 'Macon Telegraph', and which was reprinted in the Southern Israelite and other Jewish newspapers. The article, which purported to be an 'expose' of the American Nationalist, complained that 'the Southern states presently are being blanketed' by our mailings. 'It is important', warned the 'Macon Telegraph', 'that Southerners receiving copies of this publication know its origin and its reputation'.

"There followed a twisted and distorted 'history' of the American Nationalist which was saved from being ludicrous only by the vicious intent behind it. The following paragraph will suffice as an example:

"'Early in December 1952', stated the 'Telegraph' article, 'the first issue of the American Nationalist was published. In January 1954 Britton received a $500 reward from the Arab League for his reports on the Kibya incident which were printed in his paper. The article had been written by Omar Haliq of the Arab League and sent to Britton for publication.'

"Needless to say, there is not a word of truth in the allegation. But since the story seems to have received wide circulation in the South, we thought it best to set the record straight in the matter. The truth is that we never received $500 from the Arab League. We never received even $1.00 from them - for any purpose whatever. As for the story Omar Haliq was supposed to have written for our paper: we don't even know anyone by that name. Most certainly neither

"Middle Eastern Correspondent to Research

"Several days ago Omar Haliq responded favorably to a proposition he received through the mails from Robert Williams. In September, Williams contacted the Arab League with an offer to prepare a 12-page pamphlet on various phases of the Israeli-Arab controversy, including a report on the alleged pro-Israel activities of the Anti-Defamation League and the American Jewish Committee. Williams offered to do the complete job, furnishing suitable names from his mailing list to aid distribution, for the 'bargain price' of $2000.

"Haliq asked Williams for an outline of the proposed brochure for submission to Cairo. Haliq hoped that the suggested project would be approved and he offered to assist Williams in its preparation in any way he could.

"But Haliq does not make the decisions; his approval alone is meaningless.

"This is to remind you that the tentative Haliq-Williams deal is not the first time Williams has tried to do business with the Arabs. In the spring of last year, before the political conventions, Williams got in touch with Abed Bouhafa, correspondent for the influential Cairo daily, 'Al Misri', and pointed out the danger to the Arab cause in a 'Zionist-supported' candidate receiving the nomination. Williams had, he said, a scheme to spike such a move which deserved the support of Arab newspapers and suggested getting together with Bouhafa to talk the matter over.

"Williams' strenuous efforts to sell his services to Arab representatives in the United States is a long-time thing. Read the following letter to Bouhafa from Williams after the latter sold the Syrian Minister a bill of goods:

"Mr. El-Abed Buhafa
Al-Misri Bureau

New York, N.Y.

"Dear Mr. Buhafa:

"The Hon. Faiz El-Khourri, Minister for Syria, writes that he has talked with you about my unfinished manuscript 'A Gentile Looks at the Jewish Problem' and that your paper might possibly be interested in publishing the book in Arabic, when it is finished.

"I think I would be greatly interested in such a proposition.

"The book really is finished, but requires much revising and reducing. It now stands at something over 500 pages of double-spaced typed manuscript and should be reduced to not more than 300 pages, I should think. Furthermore, on the chapter dealing with the destruction of Rome and the two chapters dealing with the destruction of Russia, I must do some more research.

"I doubt that the book can be ready before fall.

"Meanwhile, it occurs to me that your paper might want to publish in Arabic one or both of the two booklets which I am sending you separately: 'The Anti-Defamation League and Its Use in the World Communist Offensive' and 'FEPC and the Minority Machine'.

"If your paper wants to publish them, in book or booklet form, I would be agreeable to the customary royalty arrangement. If, in addition to the booklets, or without publishing them as booklets, your paper should want to print them serially in its columns, then I would welcome a reasonable offer of remuneration.

"May I hear from you at your convenience?

"Sincerely,
Robert H. Williams
Major, MI-Res.

"PS - I believe I shall send both booklets herewith instead of separately." (pages 318-320).
